Tiffany Touch:

The Tiffany Touch Joseph Purtell, 1973 Sensing Sacred Jennifer Baldwin, 2016-08-30 Sensing Sacred is an edited volume that explores the critical intersection of religion and body through the religious lens of practical theology with an emphasis on sensation as the embodied means in which human beings know themselves others and the divine in the world The manuscript argues that all human interaction and practice including religious praxis engages body through at least one of the human senses touch smell hearing taste sight kinestics proprioception Unfortunately body and more specifically and ironically sensation is eclipsed in contemporary academic scholarship that is inherently bent toward the realm of theory and ideas This is unfortunate because it neglects bodies physical or communal as the repository and generator of culturally conditioned ideas and theory It is ironic because all knowledge transmission minimally requires several senses including sight touch and hearing Sensing Sacred is organized into two parts The first section devotes a chapter to each human sense as an avenue of accessing religious experience while the second section explores religious practices as they specifically focus on one or more senses The overarching aim of the volume is to explicitly highlight each sense and utilize the theoretical lenses of practical theology to bring to vivid life the connections between essential sensation and religious thinking and practice They Call Me Starlight Dawn M Smith, 2024-05-05 This mare is spent joyless without hope and at this point in time she is too dangerous to ride What is to be done with a horse that is unpredictable even dangerous Why is the horse acting this way Is there any way to overcome such challenges This is the true story of Starlight a thoroughbred retired from the racetrack and Tiffany a young woman seeking the horse of her dreams after devastating loss Told from Starlight's point of view it is a journey through dark emotions and physical challenges to eventually regain strength confidence and happiness It is a tale of a bond between horse and human that is beneficial to both in overcoming anxiety depression sadness grief anger and fear With photos to illustrate this true story you will find it easy to read but hard to put down This book will appeal to Anyone who loves horses or a good horse story Those who face anxiety depression loss fear anger or other strong emotions Counselors who may find that it can be used as a way to launch discussion about such emotions Equine therapy practices Horse rescue rehoming groups New York Magazine, 1971-11-15 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Generations of the Heart Viqui Litman, 2002 Darlene Kindalia decides to become a surrogate mother and the wife of wealthy handsome Ryan Plummer which profoundly impacts the lives of those around her especially when Ryan's hidden agenda comes to light Hungry Eve Turow-Paul, 2020-06-09 Hungry is an excellent text about people's methods of adapting to modern life it encompasses psychology generational identities and
