East Central Europe and Communism Sabrina P. Ramet,2023-03-23 The communists of East Central Europe came to power promising to bring about genuine equality paying special attention to achieving gender equality to build up industry and create prosperous societies and to use music art and literature to promote socialist ideals Instead they never succeeded in filling more than a third of their legislatures with women and were unable to make significant headway against entrenched patriarchal views they considered it necessary with the sole exception of Albania to rely heavily on credits to build up their economies eventually driving them into bankruptcy and the effort to instrumentalize the arts ran aground in most of the region already by 1956 and in Yugoslavia by 1949 Communism was all about planning control and politicization Except for Yugoslavia after 1949 the communists sought to plan and control not only politics and the economy

but also the media and information religious organizations culture and the promotion of women which they understood in the first place as involving putting women to work Inspired by the groundbreaking work of Robert K Merton on functionalist theory this book shows how communist policies were repeatedly undermined by unintended consequences and outright dysfunctions

Good Housekeeping Magazine ,1914 Good Housekeeping ... ,1914 Poorhouse Woman Fraser,1986 The second of the series featuring Tildy from the exploited 1820s nailmaking community of Bromsgrove in Worcestershire After suffering the brutality of the poorhouse Tildy makes her way with her baby son to Redditch where she intends to start a new life as a nurse

Women in Hungarian Politics, 1945-1951 Andrea Petó,2003 Based on extensive primary source material and oral history interviews this book is the first comprehensive study of Hungarian women s political involvement in post World War II Hungary It addresses the impact of the spread of communism and describes how some key organizations gradually ceased to exist and were replaced by a single communist dominated women s organization The book includes a case study of women who entered the police force a profession previously closed to them

A Beautiful Pageant D. Krasner,2016-09-27 The Harlem Renaissance was an unprecedented period of vitality in the American Arts Defined as the years between 1910 and 1927 it was the time when Harlem came alive with theater drama sports dance and politics Looking at events as diverse as the prizefight between Jack Johnson and Jim White Hope Jeffries the choreography of Aida Walker and Ethel Waters the writing of Zora Neale Hurston and the musicals of the period Krasner paints a vibrant portrait of those years This was the time when the residents of northern Manhattan were leading their downtown counterparts at the vanguard of artistic ferment while at the same time playing a pivotal role in the evolution of Black nationalism This is a thrilling piece of work by an author who has been working towards this major opus for years now It will become a classic that will stay on the American history and theater shelves for years to come
