Tillmans Truth Study:

Moment to Monument Ladina Bezzola Lambert, Andrea Ochsner, 2015-07-15 Why do certain works of art make it into the canon while others just enjoy a brief moment of recognition if at all How do moments produce monuments and why are monuments erased from our cultural memory in only a moment Taking into account these cultural processes of creating storing remembering and forgetting that are omnipresent and have an immense influence on how we perceive artefacts and cultural events the articles in this collection analyze the phenomenon of cultural production transmission and reception from various angles drawing on approaches from both literary and cultural studies With its transdisciplinary approach this book uniquely responds to an everyday cultural phenomenon that so far has not received such wide ranging attention

Disordered Attention Claire Bishop, 2025-11-11 How technology and the attention economy shape contemporary art and performance The reception of art and performance is changing Smartphones and social media have troubled the old model of individual appreciation and close looking giving rise to new forms of mediated perception such as sampling skimming and scrolling Charting recent trends in contemporary practice research based installations performance exhibitions interventions and invocations of modernist architecture leading art critic Claire Bishop challenges the assumption that fully focused attention is automatically good and distraction necessarily bad

Whatever Happened To Queer Happiness? Kevin Brazil, 2022-09-08 A timely probe into small acts of dissent seeking out a wild tenderness and new sources of light Jeremy Atherton Lin author of Gay Bar In this highly accessible entertaining and provocative work of non fiction Kevin Brazil combines essay and memoir to ask one of the most pertinent questions of our current age whatever happened to queer happiness Exploring the lives of artists and writers from the past current discourse around queerness and his own experiences Brazil argues that art and literature needs to move away from celebrating the pain of queerness and embracing all the positive ecstatic collective joy that queer culture produces Brazil s enlivening ideas around queerness combat the isolation of individuality and shame instead championing collectivity commonality and visions of shared pleasure offering both critique and a way of remaking the world A timely eminently readable and fascinating book for all readers of creative non fiction Whatever Happened to Queer Happiness is a work of literature that will reverberate for years to come

Wolfgang Tillmans Wolfgang Tillmans, Julie Ault, Daniel Birnbaum, Russell Ferguson, Dominic Molon, Lane Relyea, Mark Wigley, 2006-01-01 Few artists have changed the manner in which photographic images are made read and received over the past two decades as dramatically as German photographer Wolfgang Tillmans b 1968 One of the most important and distinctive artists to emerge in the 1990s Tillmans s work is internationally recognized for its powerful reflections on the often overlooked objects and moments in everyday life With images culled from the entirety of Tillmans s career this generously illustrated book accompanies the artist s first retrospective exhibition in the United States and features the potent effects of his portraits abstractions and structural and sculptural motifs Essays by leading scholars examine the context of the German art and pop cultural scene in which Tillmans first began working in the late 1980s his use of magazines as both venue and source materials his unique approach to portraiture his ability to create a sense of intimacy between the viewer and subjects ranging from his friends to cultural figures and heads of state and his distinctive approach to presenting his images in displays and installations A fascinating look at the breadth of Tillmans's career to date including his most recent new work this book demonstrates the renowned abilities of one of the art world's most revolutionary photographers Why Art Criticism? A Reader Julia Voss, Beate Söntgen, 2022-04-20 How is art criticism to be understood within an expanding artistic field A look at its history and its manifestations within globalized conditions shows the variety of the genre of the criteria and of the styles of writing This reader is an attempt to bring a diverse range of art critical voices and perspectives into conversation with each other with texts from the 18th century to the present The editors Beate Söntgen and Julia Voss have invited colleagues from various geographical and intellectual backgrounds to present and discuss the art critics of their choice choosing one example from their respective bodies of work to comment upon How have these writers approached art criticism Which styles do they employ What makes them extraordinary What can we learn from their writings today and why is it important in its contemporary context BEATE SÖNTGEN 1963 is professor of art history at Leuphana University Lüneburg She studied art history philosophy and modern German literature in Marburg and Berlin She is director of the DFG Research Training Group Cultures of Critique Forms Media Effects and co director of the program PriMus Doctoral Studies in Museums JULIA VOSS 1974 is an honorary professor at Leuphana University Lüneburg She studied art history modern German literature and philosophy in Berlin and London She is herself an art critic and journalist and was deputy head of the arts section of the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung Art Now Cecilia Alemani, 2008 Bookforum, 2005 Contemporary, 2006

Freedom from the Known Wolfgang Tillmans, P.S. 1 Contemporary Art Center, 2006 Freedom From The Known is the first book to focus entirely on Wolfgang Tillmans's abstract photographs exploring the presence abstraction has had within his figurative and representational work It is published on the occasion of the artist's first major solo exhibition for an American museum curated by Bob Nickas who contributes an essay here which opened at P S 1 in Long Island City New York in the spring of 2006 Of the 25 pieces here 24 were produced specifically for this project and had never been seen before the exhibition Most of are cameraless pictures made by the direct manipulation of light on paper rather than on a negative At the exhibition each photograph was presented in a frame which marked a departure for the artist who pioneered installation with tape and pins But he was right Frames gave these elusive transitory abstract images coherence as objects in space as well as both buoyancy and weight They were accompanied by a group of figurative photographs from the 1990s series Empire which made the shift from figure to abstraction by being passed through a photocopy or fax machine then scanned to the highest possible resolution turned into large scale C prints and framed A selection of earlier photographs provides a context for

Tillmans's passage from figurative and representational imagery to abstraction Taken together these more conceptual works reveal the self-reflective impulse underpinning choices of media and topic throughout his work 2000 and Beyond Valerio Terraroli, 2010 The fifth book in the series this volume concludes this extraordinary publishing project by analyzing the fascinating and controversial phenomena of contemporary art Volume V maintains the structure that characterizes the four previous publications namely a spectacular gallery of images essays by major contemporary critics and the clever juxtaposition of the most diverse objects and topics In contrast it abandons the historical and thematic reconstructions and reference to the most familiar names and scientific categories to which contemporary events by their very nature cannot be subject And it chooses to describe the multi-faceted tendencies of the contemporary age as day to day events which as such directly concern readers Aperture 182 Aperture Foundation, 2006 Life on Mars Douglas Fogle, 2008 Catalog of an exhibition held May 3 2008 Jan 11 2009 A Study of the Directorial Techniques of Clyde Fitch Ruth Elizabeth Stacey, 1955

Click Doubleclick Jean-François Chevrier, Johan de Vos, 2006 Photography is in a phase of change in which an altered conception of the documentary factor is emerging It is not so much a matter of the portrayal or representation of reality but rather of an artistically well-grounded idea of the world Thomas Weski distinguishes between the photographic images as pure documentation and photography as a form of testimony Book jacket Frieze, 2005 Frakcija, 2008 Truth Study Center Wolfgang Tillmans, Minoru Shimizu, 2005-01-01 Nouvel album du célèbre photographe W Tillmans lauréat du prix Turner 2000 S lection de nouveaux travaux abstraits 50 Contemporary Artists You Should Know Brad Finger, Christiane Weidemann, 2011 This survey of great contemporary artists is the perfect introduction to the exciting world of art today Artists working after the Second World War faced a confounding array of challenges as stylistic barriers were broken technology advanced and issues of sexuality and race came to the forefront From painters and photographers to sculptors and performance artists fifty of the most influential contemporary artists are profiled in this colorful and engaging book that traces the various artistic movements and radical changes of the second half of the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries Presented chronologically each artist is featured in 2 or 4 page spreads that include brilliant reproductions of their most important works an illuminating biography key dates in their career and informative background on major developments in the art world Throughout the volume a timeline places each artist within the context of contemporary art As diverse and inspiring as the artists themselves this book is a voyage of discovery into art's cutting edge Flash Art, 2005
