Treadwinds Poems And Intermedia Works:

Treadwinds Walter K. Lew, 2002-09-30 The long awaited first collection of Lew's poems and intermedia pieces Winner of the Asian American Literary Award for Poetry 2003 Runner up for the PEN Center USA Literary Award in Poetry 2003 Since the early 1970s the Korean American poet and scholar Walter K Lew has produced innovative works ranging from linked verse elegies for jazz musicians and multimedia movietelling performances to pioneering poetry anthologies and TV documentaries Treadwinds collects much of Lew's poetry for the first time and arranges it into five thematic sections his family's experience of Korea's turbulent history death the aesthetics of music and painting eroticism and mal which connotes Baudelarian evil in modernist literature but means language in Korean Some poems include Korean and Japanese texts while the title poem accompanies six collages by filmmaker Lewis Klahr Evident throughout is Lew's devotion to obscured aesthetic traditions political critique spiritual redemption and the creation of new meaning across media and between zones of culture

Treadwinds Walter K. Lew, 2002 The long awaited first collection of Lew's poems and intermedia pieces Clay Walls Kim Ronyoung, 2024-12-10 A landmark modern classic about the Korean American immigrant experience and the dawn of Los Angeles's Koreatown A Penguin Classic Kim Ronyoung Gloria Hahn 1926 1987 tells the story of Haesu and Chun immigrants who fled Japanese occupied Korea for Los Angeles in the decade prior to World War II and their American born children First published in 1986 Clay Walls offers a portrait of what being Korean in California meant in the first half of the twentieth century and how these immigrants nationalist spirit helped them withstand racism and poverty Kim explores the tensions within a family of immigrants and new Americans and brings to the forefront the themes of Korean immigration U S racism generational trauma and the early decades of Los Angeles's Koreatown from a Korean American woman's point of view Through three sections representing the perspectives of mother father and daughter what resonates the most is the voice of a woman and her self determination through national identity marriage and motherhood Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Wenying Xu, 2012-04-12 Asian American literature is one of the most recent forms of ethnic literature and is already becoming one of the most prominent given the large number of writers the growing ethnic population from the region the general receptivity of this body of work and the quality of the authors In recent decades there has been an exponential growth in their output and much Asian American literature has now achieved new levels of popular success and critical acclaim Nurtured by rich and long literary traditions from the vast continent of Asia this literature is poised between the ancient and the modern between the East and West and between the oral and the written The Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater covers the activities in this burgeoning field First its history is traced year by year from 1887 to the present in a chronology and the introduction provides a good overview The most important section is the dictionary with over 600 substantial and cross referenced entries on authors books and genres as well as more general ones describing the historical background cultural features techniques and major theatres and clubs More reading can be found through an extensive bibliography with general works and those on specific authors The book is thus a good place to get started or to expanded one s horizons about a branch of American literature that can only grow in importance

Hanscom, Walter K. Lew, Youngju Ryu,2013-05-31 This volume contains translations many appearing for the first time in the English language of major literary critical and historical essays from the colonial period 1910-1945 in Korea Considered representative of the debates among and between Korean and Japanese thinkers of the colonial period these texts shed light on relatively unexplored aspects of intellectual life and take part in current conversations around the nature of the colonial experience and its effects on post liberation Korean society and culture The essays each preceded by a scholarly introduction giving necessary historical and biographical context represent a diverse spectrum of ideological positions and showcase the complexity of intellectual life and scholarship in colonial Korea They allow new perspectives on an important period in Korean history a period that continues to inform political social and cultural life in crucial ways across East Asia The translations also provide an important counterpoint to the imperial archive from the perspective of the colonized and take part in the ongoing reevaluation of the colonial period and colonial modernity in both Western and East Asian scholarship Imperatives of Culture is intended in part for the increasing number of undergraduate and graduate students in Korean studies as well as for those engaged in the study of East Asia as a whole and a general educated audience with interests in modern Korea and East Asia The essays have been carefully selected and introduced in ways that open up avenues for comparison with analyses of colonial literature and history in other national contexts Rain Taxi Review of Books ,2003
