Tyler, Ross Balzaretto, 2006 The papers gathered in this volume were all given in 1999 at the International Congress on Medieval Studies in Kalamazoo at the International Medieval Congress in Leeds and during a day conference held at York They agree that looking at the wide range of narrative forms available provides new ways of viewing the Middle Ages The Charisma of Distant Places Courtney Luckhardt, 2019-07-15 This cultural history of early medieval travel and religion reveals how movement affected society demonstrating the connectedness of people and regions between 500 and 850 CE In The Charisma of Distant Places Courtney Luckhardt enriches our understanding of migration through her examination of religious movement Vertical links to God and horizontal links to distant regions identified religious travelers both men and women as holy connected to the human and the divine across physical and spiritual distances Using textual sources material culture and place studies this project is among the first to contextualize the geographic and temporal movement of early medieval people to reveal the diversity of religious travel from the voluntary journeys of pilgrims to the forced travel of Christian slaves Luckhardt offers new ways of understanding ideas about power holiness identity and mobility during the transformation of the Roman world in the global Middle Ages By focusing on the religious dimensions of early medieval people and the regions they visited this book addresses probing questions including how and why medieval people communicated and connected with one another across boundaries both geographical and imaginative Studies in Late Antique, Byzantine and Medieval Western Art Ernst Kitzinger, 2002 The two volumes consist of thirty eight articles previously published by the author from 1938 to 1995 Illinois Central

Archaeological Review from Cambridge ,2006 Reports of the Research Committee of the Society of Antiquaries of London ,2005 Precious Metals in the Later Medieval and Early Modern Worlds J. F. Richards,John F. Richards,1983 Medieval Jewellery Marian Campbell,2009-11 Jewellery has always been of central importance to all human societies but medieval jewellery is relatively less well known This book draws on the important collection at the V A to focus on the heart of the medieval period from 1100 to 1500 The jewellery worn in medieval Europe was important as an indicator of the wearers social status and wealth faith and superstition allegiances and literacy Royalty and the nobility wore gold silver or precious gems the costliest jewellery while humbler ranks wore base metals copper or pewter sometimes set with coloured glass in imitation of gems The themes of love religion and magic inspired the creation of much medieval jewellery Gems were chosen for their colour size and the magical or healing powers they were widely believed to bestow upon their wearers Until late in the Middle Ages gems were not faceted but simply polished Sapphires pearls garnets and amethysts were popular rubies the most highly prized This richly illustrated book looks at the jewels themselves and contemporary portraits and sculpture to place the jewellery in its cultural context Book Jacket Coin Hoarding in Medieval England and Wales, C. 973-1544 Murray Andrews,2019 This book presents a pioneering analysis of the archaeological and numismatic evidence for medieval coin hoarding using advanced statistical and GIS methodologies to identify and interpret patterns in the formation and deposition of more than 800 medieval coin hoards found in England and Wales Treasures of the Black Death Christine Descatoire,2009 In the middle of the 14th century Europe was devastated by an appalling epidemic which killed a third of its population Accused of having spread the disease Jewish communities faced terrible persecutions which often led them to bury their most valuable goods Two of these hoards discovered at Colmar in 1863 and at Erfurt in 1998 are discussed and illustrated here Comprising a great variety of jewelry gold and silversmiths work and coins these two hoards constitute an exceptional source for the study of secular metalwork in the 13th and 14th centuries very few examples of which have otherwise come down to us They provide precious evidence of the economic activities and daily life of the medieval Jewish communities but also of their precarious position within Christian Europe In Erfurt over 1 000 people were killed the entire Jewish population Some of the objects because of their very personal character are deeply poignant The Pictish Monastery at Portmahomack M. O. H. Carver,2008 The Upholsterer ,1915 Medieval Feminist Forum ,2001 Medieval Art Georges Duby,1995 America ,1910 The Jesuit review of faith and culture Nov 13 2017 Wasperton M. O. H. Carver,Catherine Hills,Jonathan Scheschkewitz,2009 The newest research on a major Anglo Saxon site paints a vivid picture of the beginnings of England Edited by Martin Carver For decades scholars have puzzled over the true story of settlement in Britain between the fifth and eighth centuries Did the Romans leave Did the Anglo Saxons invade What happened to the British Newlight on these questions comes unexpectedly from Wasperton a small village on the Warwickshire Avon where archaeologists had the good fortune to excavate a complete cemetery and its prehistoric setting The community reused an old Romano British agricultural enclosure and built burial mounds beside it There was a score of cremations in Anglo Saxon pots but there were also unfurnished graves lined with stones and planks in the manner of western Britain In a pioneering analysis including radiocarbon and stable isotopes the authors of this book have put this variety of burial practice into a credible sequence and built up a picture of life at the time Here there were people who were culturally Roman British and Anglo Saxon pagan and Christian in continuous use of the same graveyard and drawing on a common inheritance Here we can see the beginnings of England and the people who made it happen not the kings warriors and preachers but the ordinary folk obliged to make their own choices choices about what nation to build and which religion to follow MARTIN CARVER is Professor Emeritus of Archaeology at the University of York Dr CATHERINE HILLS is Senior Lecturer in Anglo Saxon Archaeology at the University of Cambridge Dr JONATHAN SCHESCHKEWITZ is Officer with the Ancient Monuments authority of Stuttgart
