Copyright Office,1925      Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1926      Atlantis Ignatius Donnelly,1882 This book more than any other established the existence of this lost continent for the modern world      Some Kind of Paradise Thomas D. Clareson, 1985-12-11 Clareson reveals the interplay between literary expressionism and intellectual history and shows how science fiction was a popular response to world events during the period 1870-1930. He emphasizes that at least before World War II the predominant tone of American science fiction was optimistic and that one way or another through advanced technology or a return to primitiveness the writers were going to produce Some Kind of Paradise. Atlantis in America Lewis Spence, 1925 Atlantis: the antediluvian world Ignatius Donnelly, 1889 At the center of Donnelly's thesis are a set of similarities between widely separated cultures. This he interpreted as evidence that all civilization diffused outward from a central point, a now sunken continent in the mid Atlantic. He cites mythological, linguistic, ethnographic, and other evidence for this theory which at the time seemed to add up to an airtight case. Donnelly proposes a literal interpretation of Plato's account of Atlantis. He also ties Atlantis into the global flood myth complex. These until recently have been two of the most compelling unsolved puzzles of history. What was Plato writing about when he described the prehistoric civilization of Atlantis which disappeared overnight in a great catastrophe? Was this an actual historical account or a philosophical fable? And why do widely separated cultures on every continent, Australia, the Americas, Europe, and Asia, all have a similar myth of a great flood from which only a few humans survived to restart civilization. The Lost Worlds Romance Allienne R. Becker, 1992-06-17 These romances reflect the developing natural and social sciences of the times in which they were written. The themes of evolution, teleportation, human longevity, euthanasia, other dimensions, reincarnation, uses of radium, utopian and dystopian societies among many others play a prominent part. Darwin, Marx, and Freud have influenced the authors of these romances. Becker demonstrates that at a time when the sexual mores of mainstream fiction were fairly repressed, writers of the Lost Worlds Romance were permitted much liberty with the erotic imagination. The treatment given to women in these romances is explored. Chicorel Index to Parapsychology and Occult Books Marietta Chicorel, 1978 Devil's Tor David Lindsay, 1978 1930s occult philosophical novel about the fated coming together of a man and a woman to reinstate the worship of the Great Mother and move humankind into a new era. Anatomy of Wonder, Science Fiction Neil Barron, 1976 They R. Reginald, Douglas Alver Menville, 1978 Adventures in Sakaeland Martin Louis Alan Gompertz, 1978 Fiction, 1876-1983: Titles R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, R.R. Bowker Company.
