War and Remembrance Thomas H. Conner, 2018-10-05 No soldier could ask for a sweeter resting place than on the field of glory where he fell The land he died to save vies with the one which gave him birth in paying tribute to his memory and the kindly hands which so often come to spread flowers upon his earthly coverlet express in their gentle task a personal affection General John J Pershing To remember and honor the memory of the American soldiers who fought and died in foreign wars during the past hundred years the American Battle Monuments Commission ABMC was established Since the agency was founded in 1923 its sole purpose has been to commemorate the soldiers service and the causes for which their lives were given The twenty five overseas cemeteries honoring 139 000 combat dead and the memorials honoring the 60 314 fallen soldiers with no known graves are among the most beautiful and meticulously maintained shrines in the world In the first comprehensive study of the ABMC Thomas H Conner traces how the agency came to be created by Congress in the aftermath of World War I how the cemeteries and monuments the agency built were designed and their locations chosen and how the commemorative sites have become important outposts of remembrance on foreign soil War and Remembrance powerfully demonstrates that these monuments living sites that embody the role Americans played in the defense of freedom far from their own shores assist in understanding the interconnections of memory and history and serve as an inspiration to later generations Community Buildings as War Memorials ,1919 Out of Fire and Valor ,2005 Part guide part meditation part history this beautifully written and lavishly illustrated book sets the moral scene in which we must commemorate the lives of those who died for their country in war This timely book invites us to reflect not only on the bravery and the glory but also on the nature of remembrance Community Buildings as War Memorials War Camp Community Service (U.S.). Bureau of Memorial Buildings, 1919 Community Buildings as War Memorials: The architecture of memorial community houses ,1919 War Memorials Arnold Whittick, 1946 War Monuments, Museums and Library Collections of 20th Century Conflicts Steve Rajtar, Frances Elizabeth Franks, 2015-07-11 This unique state by state directory covers monuments memorials museums markers statues and library collections that relate to the veterans weapons vehicles airplanes victims or any other aspect of war in which the United States participated While a site may have been created before 1900 such as a fort there must be some operational or historical tie to a twentieth century conflict to be included here General collections such as museums of aviation are included if they house materials related to a twentieth century conflict The coverage is so thorough that statues honoring veterans of the Civil War appear if veterans of later wars are on their rosters of honorees Another example of the comprehensiveness of this compilation is in the inclusion of memorials to victims of war such as the Holocaust Museum in Houston Texas For each site the following information is given street address phone number website and email address if applicable days and hours of operation admission fees other necessary information and a brief description of the site Memorial Mania Erika Doss, 2012-09-07 In the past few decades thousands of new memorials to executed witches victims of terrorism and dead astronauts along with those that pay tribute to civil rights organ donors and the end of Communism have dotted the American landscape Equally ubiquitous though until now less the subject of serious inquiry are temporary memorials spontaneous offerings of flowers and candles that materialize at sites of tragic and traumatic death In Memorial Mania Erika Doss argues that these memorials underscore our obsession with issues of memory and history and the urgent desire to express and claim those issues in visibly public contexts Doss shows how this desire to memorialize the past disposes itself to individual anniversaries and personal grievances to stories of tragedy and trauma and to the social and political agendas of diverse numbers of Americans By offering a framework for understanding these sites Doss engages the larger issues behind our culture of commemoration Driven by heated struggles over identity and the politics of representation Memorial Mania is a testament to the fevered pitch of public feelings in America today

Civil War Monuments and the Militarization of America Thomas J. Brown,2019-10-10 This sweeping new assessment of Civil War monuments unveiled in the United States between the 1860s and 1930s argues that they were pivotal to a national embrace of military values Americans wariness of standing armies limited construction of war memorials in the early republic Thomas J Brown explains and continued to influence commemoration after the Civil War As large cities and small towns across the North and South installed an astonishing range of statues memorial halls and other sculptural and architectural tributes to Civil War heroes communities debated the relationship of military service to civilian life through fund raising campaigns artistic designs oratory and ceremonial practices Brown shows that distrust of standing armies gave way to broader enthusiasm for soldiers in the Gilded Age Some important projects challenged the trend but many Civil War monuments proposed new norms of discipline and vigor that lifted veterans to a favored political status and modeled racial and class hierarchies A half century of Civil War commemoration reshaped remembrance of the American Revolution and guided American responses to World War I Brown provides the most comprehensive overview of the American war memorial as a cultural form and reframes the national debate over Civil War monuments that remain potent presences on the civic landscape

Mayo,1988-05-12 War Memorials as Political Landscape critiques the social meaning of war memorials and their role in political and historical landscapes Mayo argues that war memorials not only reflect the political history of a nation but also that these memorials are mechanisms to symbolize and justify history He posits that the presence or absence of commemoration for America s wars is largely explained by the war s importance in establishing the nation s symbolic identity as a political state and by the number of those who died in that war
