War Of Visions:

The Vision of the World-war Seen Repeatedly by Leo Tolstoy from 1908 to 1910 Albert Joseph Edmunds,1914

Visions of the End of the Cold War in Europe, 1945-1990 Frédéric Bozo,Marie-Pierre Rey,N. Piers Ludlow,Bernd Rother,2012-03-01 Exploring the visions of the end of the Cold War that have been put forth since its inception until its actual ending this volume brings to the fore the reflections programmes and strategies that were intended to call into question the bipolar system and replace it with alternative approaches or concepts These visions were associated not only with prominent individuals organized groups and civil societies but were also connected to specific historical processes or events They ranged from actual thoroughly conceived programmes to more blurred utopian aspirations or simply the belief that the Cold War had already in effect come to an end Such visions reveal much about the contexts in which they were developed and shed light on crucial moments and phases of the Cold War Cold War Mary Peter Jan Margry,2021-01-28 One hardly known but fascinating aspect of the Cold War was the use of the holy Virgin Mary as a warrior against atheist ideologies After the Second World War there was a remarkable rise in the West of religiously inflected rhetoric against what was characterised as godless communism The leaders of the Roman Catholic Church not only urged their followers to resist socialism but along with many prominent Catholic laity and activist movements they marshaled the support of Catholics into a spiritual holy war In this book renowned experts address a variety of grassroots and Church initiatives related to Marian politics the hausse of Marian apparitions during the Cold War period and the present day revival of Marian devotional culture By identifying and analysing the militant side of Mary in the Cold War context on a global scale for the first time Cold War Mary will attract readers interested in religious history history of the Cold War and twentieth century international history

Decolonization and the Cold War Leslie James,Elisabeth Leake,2015-02-26 The Cold War and decolonization transformed the twentieth century world This volume brings together an international line up of experts to explore how these transformations took place and expand on some of the latest threads of analysis to help inform our understanding of the links between the two phenomena The book begins by exploring ideas of modernity development and economics as Cold War and postcolonial projects and goes on to look at the era s intellectual history and investigate how emerging forms of identity fought for supremacy Finally the contributors question ideas of sovereignty and state control that move beyond traditional Cold War narratives Decolonization and the Cold War emphasizes new approaches by drawing on various methodologies regions themes and interdisciplinary work to shed new light on two topics that are increasingly important to historians of the twentieth century Visions of the Future and Other Discourses Octavius Brooks Frothingham,1879 The New York Times Current History of the European War ,1915 The Encyclopedia of Indonesia in the Pacific War ,2009-12-14 An obvious hiatus amidst the abundance of Pacific War studies is the story of Indonesia during that period The Encyclopedia of Indonesia in the Pacific War edited under the aegis of the Netherlands Institute for War Documentation now fills that gap

This state of the art work reflects the different experiences and historiographic traditions of Indonesians Japanese and Dutch The aim is to present the developments in the Indonesian archipelago in as much a rational and dispassionate way as possible taking into account regional and social variations and interpreting them within the international context of pre and post war trends With due acknowledgement of different perspectives ambiguities unresolved issues and conflicting views it sets out to enhance mutual understanding and academic dialogue
