Ida B. Wells-Barnett and American Reform, 1880-1930 Patricia A. Schechter, 2003-01-14 Pioneering African American journalist Ida B Wells Barnett 1862 1931 is widely remembered for her courageous antilynching crusade in the 1890s the full range of her struggles against injustice is not as well known With this book Patricia Schechter restores Wells Barnett to her central if embattled place in the early reform movements for civil rights women s suffrage and Progressivism in the United States and abroad Schechter s comprehensive treatment makes vivid the scope of Wells Barnett s contributions and examines why the political philosophy and leadership of this extraordinary activist eventually became marginalized Though forced into the shadow of black male leaders such as W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington and misunderstood and then ignored by white women reformers such as Frances E Willard and Jane Addams Wells Barnett nevertheless successfully enacted a religiously inspired female centered and intensely political vision of social betterment and empowerment for African American communities throughout her adult years By analyzing her ideas and activism in fresh sharpness and detail Schechter exposes the promise and limits of social change by and for black women during an especially violent yet hopeful era in U S history

Give Me Shelter Andrew Paul Burtch, 2012 How could you and your family survive a nuclear war From 1945 onwards the Canadian government developed civil defence plans and encouraged citizens to join local survival corps By the time of the Cuban Missile Crisis the civil defence program was widely mocked and the public was still vastly unprepared for nuclear war An expos of the challenges of educating the public on the threat of nuclear annihilation Give Me Shelter provides a well grounded explanation of why Canada s civil defence strategy ultimately failed It is essential reading for anyone interested in Canada s Cold War home front

Miss Dior Justine Picardie, 2021-11-09 Remarkable Hamish Bowles Vogue The overdue restoration of Catherine Dior s extraordinary life from her brother s muse to Holocaust survivor When the French designer Christian Dior presented his first collection in Paris in 1947 he changed fashion forever Dior s New Look created a striking romantic vision of femininity luxury and grace making him and his last name famous overnight One woman informed Dior s vision more than any other his sister Catherine a Resistance fighter concentration camp survivor and cultivator of rose gardens who inspired Dior s most beloved fragrance Miss Dior Yet the story of Catherine s remarkable life so different from her famous brother s has never been told until now

Drawing on the Dior archives and extensive research Justine Picardie's Miss Dior is the long overdue restoration of Catherine Dior's life. The siblings' stories are profoundly intertwined in Occupied France as Christian honed his couture skills. Catherine dedicated herself to the Resistance, ultimately being captured by the Gestapo and sent to Ravensbrück, the only Nazi camp solely for women. Seeking to trace Catherine's story as well as her influence on her brother, Picardie traveled to the significant places of Catherine's life, including Les Rhumbs, the Dior family villa with its magnificent gardens, the House of Dior in Paris, and La Colle Noire, Christian's chateau that he bequeathed to his sister. Inventive and captivating, and shaped by Picardie's own journey, Miss Dior examines the legacy of Christian Dior, the secrets of postwar France, and the unbreakable bond between two remarkable siblings. Most important, it shines overdue recognition on a previously overlooked life, one that epitomized courage and also embodied the astonishing capacity of the human spirit to remain undimmed even in the darkest circumstances. This fourth edition has been fully revised and expanded to include even more acts than ever before, with additional sections to cover Band Aid style charity congregations and compilation albums from the early 80s K Tel efforts through to the Now That's What I Call Music series and its competitors. Compiled by Steve Binnie, editor of the 80s music website Sound of the Crowd and writer, producer, and co-host of the unconventional 80s chart show Off The Chart, broadcast weekly on Mad Wasp Radio. Education for Victory, 1943.
