We Have Come A Long Way:

I Have Come a Long Way John W. de Gruchy, 2016-03-18 If my life and experience is of some interest it is chiefly so because I have lived through interesting times in an interesting country traveled to many interesting places and been accompanied along the way by interesting folk John de Gruchy is a renowned South African theologian and an inspiration to many An expert on the work of the anti Nazi theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer De Gruchy is also a local struggle icon in his own right In this book we trace his story from his Viking ancestry via a seafaring grandfather and illegitimate grandmother to where he became an ecumenical activist for the South African Council of Churches and up to the present We journey through a South Africa in transition and a rapidly changing global society Along the way we meet varied often controversial people like Albert Luthuli Jaap Durand P W Botha and Constand Viljoen With a foreword by his friend Desmond Tutu this is the tale of an extraordinary life lived to the full

"Making a Way Out of No Way" Wolfgang Mieder, 2010 In barely forty years of life Martin Luther King 1929 1968 distinguished himself as one of the greatest social reformers of modern times civil rights leader defender of nonviolence in the struggle of desegregation champion of the poor anti war proponent and broad minded visionary of an interrelated world of free people His many verbal and written communications in the form of sermons speeches interviews letters essays and several books are replete with Bible proverbs as Love your enemies He who lives by the sword shall perish by the sword and Man does not live by bread alone as well as folk proverbs as Time and tide wait for no man Last hired first fired No gain without pain and Making a way out of no way He also delighted in citing quotations that have become proverbs to wit No man is an island All men are created equal and No lie can live forever King recycles these bits of traditional wisdom in various contexts varying his proverbial messages as he addresses the multifaceted issues of civil rights His rhetorical prowess is thus informed to a considerable degree by his effective use of his repertoire of proverbs which he frequently uses as leitmotifs or amasses into set pieces of fixed phrases to be employed repeatedly
