Dale Guthrie,2005 Publisher Description The Bear and His Sons James M. Taggart,2010-07-05 All the world over people tell stories to express their deepest feelings about such things as what makes a real man or woman what true love courage or any other virtue is what the proper relationships are between people Often groups of people widely separated by space or time will tell the same basic story but with differences in the details that reveal much about a particular group's worldview. This book looks at differences in the telling of several common Hispanic folktales. James Taggart contrasts how two men, a Spaniard and an Aztec-speaking Mexican, tell such tales as The Bear's Son. He explores how their stories present different ways of being a man in their respective cultures. Taggart's analysis contributes to a revision of Freud's theory of gender, which was heavily grounded in biological determinism. Taggart focuses instead on how fathers reproduce different forms of masculinity in their sons. In particular, he shows how fathers who care for their infant sons teach them a relational masculinity based on a connected view of human relationships. Thus The Bear and His Sons will be important reading not only in anthropology and folklore but also in the growing field of men's studies.

The Art of Dying and Other Stories Githa Hariharan, 1993. Twenty stories of contemporary Indian life by an astonishingly original writer. This striking collection of stories demonstrates the remarkable range of one of India's most accomplished writers. Sometimes comic yet tinged with sadness, as in The Remains of the Feast where an old woman near the end of her life suddenly feels the urge to sample all the food she has been forbidden, sometimes with a twist as in Gajar Halwa where Chellamma, a servant girl from a small town, finally understands what makes a big city work, sometimes moving as in The Reprieve and always executed with a precision of style and magical imagery, these stories never fail to surprise and delight.

The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low, 1911. Volumes for 1898-1968 include a directory of publishers.

The Woman who Wrote King Lear and Other Stories Louis Phillips, 2008. Fiction. This wildly imaginative collection of fourteen short stories won't move you to tears but will very likely move you to laughter. Phillips writes about a committee of grief about termites in Africa about Lee Harvey Oswald's can opener. He tells of how an angry consumer shows his disdain for the telephone company by sending out false bills which ultimately leads to the withdrawal of the state of Iowa from the union. In one crazy piece Phillips describes the chaos that occurs when a cat finds Thomas Hardy's heart and well devours it, disrupting plans to put the heart on display. And he writes that amazing title story. Yes, it's true, King Lear was penned by Radcliffe Graduate Muriel B. Hopkins, not by the esteemed William Shakespeare. What is the theme connecting these stories? Madness, perhaps, but not only the madness of single characters; these stories are also about the madness of crowds. Read these stories but be prepared to confront new realities, some of which you may never entirely escape.
