Wedding As Text Communicating Cultural Identities Through Ritual:

Wedding as Text Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz, 2002-12-18 A wedding serves as the beginning marker of a marriage if a couple is to manage cultural differences throughout their relationship they must first pass the hurdle of designing a wedding ceremony that accommodates those differences In this volume author Wendy Leeds Hurwitz documents the weddings of 112 couples from across the United States studied over a 10 year period She focuses on intercultural weddings interracial interethnic interfaith international and interclass looking at how real people are coping with cultural differences in their lives Through detailed case studies the book explores how couples display different identities simultaneously The concepts of community ritual identity and meaning are given extensive consideration Because material culture plays a particularly important role in weddings as in other examples of ritual food clothing and objects are given special attention here Focusing on how couples design a wedding ritual to simultaneously meet multiple and different requirements this book provides extensive details of actual behavior by couples an innovative format six traditional theoretical chapters with examples integrated into the discussion are matched to six interludes providing detailed descriptions of the most successful examples of resolving intercultural differences a methodological appendix detailing what was done and why these decisions were made and a theoretical appendix outlining the study s assumptions in detail Wedding as Text Communicating Cultural Identities Through Ritual is a distinctive study of those who have accepted cultural difference into their daily lives and how they have managed to do so successfully As such it is suitable for students and scholars in semiotics intercultural communication ritual material culture family communication and family studies and will be valuable reading for anyone facing the issue of cultural difference

Music in the American Diasporic Wedding Inna Naroditskaya, 2019-05-23 Music in the American Diasporic Wedding explores the complex cultural adaptations preservations and fusions that occur in weddings between couples and families of diverse origins Discussing weddings as a site of negotiations between generations traditions and religions the essays gathered here argue that music is the mediating force between the young and the old ritual and entertainment and immigrant lore and assimilation The contributors examine such colorful integrations as klezmer tinged Mandarin tunes at a Jewish and Taiwanese American wedding a wedding services industry in Chicago s South Asian community featuring a diversity of wedding music options and Puerto Rican cultural activists dancing down the aisles of New York s St Cecilia s church to the thunder of drums and maracas and rapping their marriage vows These essays show us what wedding music and performance tell us about complex multiethnic diasporic identities and remind us that how we listen to and celebrate otherness defines who we are

World Cinema through Global Genres William V. Costanzo, 2014-01-28 World Cinema through Global Genres introduces the complex forces of global filmmaking using the popular concept of film genre The cluster based organization allows students to acquire a clear understanding of core issues that apply to all films around the world Innovative pedagogical approach that uses genres to teach the more unfamiliar subject of world cinema A cluster based organization provides a solid framework for students to acquire a sharper understanding of core issues that apply to all films around the world A deep focus section in each chapter gives students information and insights about important regions of filmmaking India China Japan and Latin America that tend to be underrepresented in world cinema classes Case studies allow students to focus on important and accessible individual films that exemplify significant traditions and trends A strong foundation chapter reviews key concepts and vocabulary for understanding film as an art form a technology a business an index of culture a social barometer and a political force The engaging style and organization of the book make it a compelling text for both world cinema and film genre courses

Proceedings of the fourth Asia-Pacific Research in Social Sciences and Humanities, Arts and Humanities Stream (AHS-APRISH 2019) Shuri Mariasih Gietty Tambunan, 2023-05-27 This is an open access book According to Castells power now rests in networks the logic of the network is more powerful than the powers of the network quoted in Weber 2002 p 104 it is whether nation states or local communities are deeply affected especially by inclusion in and exclusion from the global networks that structure a various sectors in society at any level Thus it is also crucial look closely at exclusion from and inclusion in different kinds of social structures where connectivity and access to networks are essential being aware that people at the bottom are those who with nothing to offer the network are excluded Castells arguments shows us how the new forms of network society offer challenges in a way that despite the disappearance of conventional ties exploitation marginalization exclusion and differentiation remain In what follows scholarships are invited to build an academic discussion on characterizing the structure and dynamics of societies in the world of the twenty first century Thus scholar may come to look at the meaning of being in a network society by examining the role of network society within the complexity of socio cultural political and economic circumstances in strengthening the role of science in overcoming local national regional and global problems But scientific research is also required to identify a wide variety of solutions to societal problems enhanced by the network society which no longer relate solely to a particular discipline but are multi and trans disciplinary In addition recent research has changed the traditional role of academia demanding more collaboration in the production of science not only among universities but also among researchers social practitioners and policymakers Considering these issues the fourth Asia Pacific Research in Social Sciences and Humanities APRiSH will be hosted by the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences Universitas Indonesia FISIP UI in 2019 under the theme The Network Society Continuity and Change Scientific inputs from all parts of the world are welcome academically and practically Various perspectives based on mono disciplinary multi disciplinary or trans disciplinary research are expected to examine the problems and contribute to solutions

Socially Constructing Communication Gloria J. Galanes, Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz, 2009 The idea for this book originated at NCA s Summer Institute Catching Ourselves in the Act A Collaborative Planning Session to Enrich our Discipline through Social Constructionist Approaches The conference provided the opportunity to interact with like minded others to discuss how social construction approaches influence or should influence our work Another goal for the conference and for this book is to promote social construction approaches within the discipline We need to look forward by focusing on how the social construction perspective transforms our own work When we teach how can we best clarify the social construction principles we believe in and how can we convey the passion we feel for this approach How can we insure that our research practices are faithful to constructionist principles What practices can we or must we adopt to remain faithful to these principles Together the chapters in this volume address such questions with the intention of helping us take the next step forward This book extends the conversation about social constructionism approaches and invites others to participate in that conversation

Public Speaking Paul Edward Nelson, Scott Titsworth, Judy C. Pearson, 2006 This is a new brief economical text that stresses the importance of public communication in contemporary life Through its numerous examples and excellent companion collection of sample speeches the book and its media program integrate vital themes of our time and invite students to make the connection between their basic public speaking class and such important issues as ethics religious identity diversity health medicine education and the environment
