White Dancer

Gala Moody, Michael Carter

White Dancer:

The Dancer's Handbook Gala Moody, Michael Carter, 2025-02-13 The Dancer's Handbook offers a holistic exploration of the dance industry's challenges authored by dancers intimately familiar with its complexities. This comprehensive resource tackles themes like power dynamics, hierarchical structures, and the pervasive influences of capitalism, patriarchy, and white supremacy as the status quo in the arts. This book delves into dismantling the status quo, examining its manifestations in the body and mind of dancers, and advocates for wellbeing and self-worth in the workplace as the way of change. Psychological aspects, coping mechanisms, and the importance of rest are addressed alongside discussions on ethical engagement, consent, and the democratisation of workplace behaviour through co-authored principles of practice. The final chapters empower dancers to find their voice, offering structured communication strategies to confront transgressive behaviours and foster accountability. With insights from years of reimagining working conditions, this book serves as a beacon for positive change, urging dancers and dance-related professionals to challenge norms, prioritise wellbeing, and speak up to power. Dancing in the World Sinclair Ogaga Emoghene, Kathleen A. Spanos, 2023-08-16 How can we create more inclusive spaces in the field of dance? This book presents a framework for dance practitioners and researchers working in diverse dance cultures to navigate academia and the professional dance field. The framework is based on the idea of cultural confluences conjuring up an image of bodies of water meeting and flowing into and past one another, migrating through what the authors refer to as the mainstream and non-mainstream. These streams are fluid categories that are associated with power, privilege, and the ability or inability to absorb other cultural forms in shared dance spaces. In reflective interludes and dialogues, Emoghene and Spanos consider the effects of migration on their own individual experiences in dance to understand what it means to carry culture through the body in various spaces. Through an analysis of language, aesthetic values, spaces, creative processes, and archival research practices, the book offers a collaborative model for communicating the value that marginalized dance communities bring to the field. This book will be of great interest to students, scholars, and arts administrators in dance.

The Black Dancing Body B. Gottschild, 2016-04-30 What is the essence of black dance in America? To answer that question, Brenda Dixon Gottschild maps an unorthodox geography: the geography of the black dancing body to show the central place black dance has in American culture. From the feet to the butt, to hair to skin, face and beyond to the soul, Brenda Dixon Gottschild talks to some of the greatest choreographers of our day, including Garth Fagan, Francesca Harper, Meredith Monk, Brenda Buffalino, Doug Elkins, Ralph Lemon, Fernando Bujones, Bill T. Jones, Trisha Brown, Jawole Zollar, Bebe Miller, Sean Curran, and Shelly Washington to look at the evolution of black dance and its importance to American culture. This is a groundbreaking piece of work by one of the foremost African American dance critics of our day. Feminism and Antiracism Kathleen M. Blee, France Winddance Twine, 2001-08 Summary: A collection of international scholars and activists answer the question: how does gender and region/nation play a defining role in how feminists engage in anti-racist practices?

How has the restructuring in the world economy affected anti racist organizing How do Third World Feminists counter the perception that feminism is a Western ideology and how effective are their methods What opportunities does globalization bring for cross cultural organizing From essays on the race and gender issues in organizing exotic dancers to resistance art in Africa and the U S this timely and necessary anthology will be sure to spark debate and controversy Contributors Angela Davis Kathleen Blee France Winddance Twine Heater Merrill Veronica Magar Siobhan Brooks Delores Walters Michelle Rosenthal Ellen Kaye Scott andrea breen Yoshiko Nozaki Sohera Syeda Becky Thompson Paola Bacchetta Carolyn Martin Shaw Eileen O Brien and Michael Armato Jane Freedman Cathleen Armstead Ashwini Deshpande and Minelle Mahtani Publisher description Authenticating Whiteness Rachel E. Dubrofsky,2022-11-29 In Authenticating Whiteness Karens Selfies and Pop Stars Rachel E Dubrofsky explores the idea that popular media implicitly portrays whiteness as credible trustworthy familiar and honest and that this portrayal is normalized and ubiquitous Whether on television film social media or in the news white people are constructed as believable and unrehearsed from the way they talk to how they look and act Dubrofsky argues that this way of making white people appear authentic is a strategy of whiteness requiring attentiveness to the context of white supremacy in which the presentations unfold The volume details how ideas about what is natural good and wholesome are reified in media showing how these values are implicitly racialized Additionally the project details how white women are presented as particularly authentic when they seem to lose agency by expressing affect through emotional and bodily displays The chapters examine a range of popular media newspaper articles about Donald J Trump a selfie taken at Auschwitz music videos by Miley Cyrus the television series UnREAL the infamous video of Amy Cooper calling the police on an innocent Black man and the documentary Miss Americana pinpointing patterns that cut across media to explore the implications for the larger culture in which they exist At its heart the book asks Who gets to be authentic And what are the implications
