The White Ladies of Worcester is an inspiring romantic story of a nun who enters a convent thinking her lover is dead and a knight who was told his lady had married another. As the nuns in the Nunnery of the White Ladies return from Vespers through the underground passage into the cloisters, an old lay sister, Mary Antony, counts them every time by dropping one pea for each nun from her hand into a bag. However, one evening her count turns out differently; the nuns pass all the peas drop into the bag, and then one more nun passes by, making the old lady think that there might be an intruder into the convent.

Florence Louisa Barclay (2 December 1862 – 10 March 1921) was an English romance novelist and short story writer. She was born Florence Louisa Charlesworth in Limpsfield, Surrey, England, the daughter of the local Anglican rector. One of three girls, she was a sister to Maud Ballington Booth, the Salvation Army leader and co-founder of the Volunteers of America. When Florence was seven years old, the family moved to Limehouse in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets. In 1881, Florence Charlesworth married the Rev. Charles W. Barclay and honeymooned in the Holy Land, where in Shechem they reportedly discovered Jacob's Well, the place where, according to the Gospel of St. John, Jesus met the woman of Samaria (John 4:5). Florence Barclay and her husband settled in Hertford Heath, Hertfordshire, where she fulfilled the duties of a rector's wife. She became the mother of eight children. In her early forties, health problems left her bedridden for a time, and she passed the hours by writing what became her first romance novel, titled The Wheels of Time. Her next novel, The Rosary, a story of undying love, was published in 1909 and its success eventually resulted in its being translated into eight languages and made into five motion pictures, also in several languages. According to the New York Times, the novel was the No. 1 bestselling novel of 1910 in the United States. The enduring popularity of the book was such that more than twenty-five years later, Sunday Circle magazine serialized the story, and in 1926 the prominent French playwright Alexandre Bisson adapted the book as a three-act play for the Parisian stage. Florence Barclay wrote eleven books in all, including a work of non-fiction. Her novel The Mistress of Shenstone (1910) was made into a silent film of the same title in 1921. Her short story Under the Mulberry Tree appeared in the special issue called The Spring Romance Number of the Ladies Home Journal of 11 May 1911. Florence Barclay died in 1921 at the age of fifty-eight. The Life of Florence Barclay, a study in personality, was published anonymously that year by G. P. Putnam's Sons by one of her daughters.
