As I read this story, you will hear the words Left and Right. Each time you hear Right, pass the gift to the Right. If you hear Left, pass it to the Left. Enjoy the game!

that you've heard Santa's story, pass the gift one more time to the Right. The person holding the gift now has the special Christmas gift in their hands!
