White Linen Remembered Marya Fiamengo, 1996 Marya Fiamengo is one of Canada's truly fine poets. For nearly four decades she has been publishing poetry of unusual distinctiveness. Intelligent, richly evocative, formidable in its clarity, lyrical and yet austere, the voice in Fiamengo's poems is like no other in Canadian poetry. White Linen Remembered, her seventh collection, expresses her concern for the continued vitality of the individual and does so paradoxically within an elegiac frame. Invoking the power of art to console and heal in the face of the inevitables of human loss, Fiamengo meditates on the origins of personal identity and ultimately the imponderables of the divine. Words We Call Home Linda Svendsen, 2011-11-01 This is the 25th anniversary going on 44th of an opportunity of Earle Birney's sanctuary for creative writers. We at the gate of the stockade follow the migrations of the creatures imagined into life outside and it is best that I do as we always have let the gate swing open to let the curiosity roam so that you can see some of those that came down through the years to drink at UBC and then move on. Each of us has our favourites; you will find yours. George McWhirter from the Introduction. Words We Call Home is a commemorative anthology celebrating more than twenty-five years of achievement for the UBC Creative Writing department, the oldest writing program in Canada. The more than sixty poets, dramatists, and fiction writers included provide just a sample of the energy and vision the department has fostered over the years. From Earle Birney's pioneering efforts in 1946 to the birth of the department in 1965 to the present day, the programme has created a place for aspiring talented writers. That it has succeeded is evidenced by the numerous authors who have received Governor General Awards, Commonwealth Poetry Prizes, CBC Prizes for Poetry, and other distinguished awards. Words We Call Home is a collection of work that will hold a special place in the hearts of those who have watched UBC grow and flourish over the years and of everyone who loves literature. New York State Library History Bulletin, 1918

Remembering . . . Joyce McK-Hammers, 2017-05-31 Remembering is a story about a teenage girl who lost her memory due to a brain injury sustained in a hit and run car accident. Her parents were instantly killed in the crash. The culprits who caused the accident cannot be found. There is evidence the accident was intentional. The accident scene may be better described as a murder scene. Grieving her parents' death is overwhelming. She wants to die. To encourage her, a mystery person leaves a rose in unique places for her to find. She is totally surprised when the person is revealed. Some of her memory is gradually restored. She recalls fun-filled childhood days. She cannot remember her teenage years. Regardless of challenges and advice by doctors, she begins her first year of college. As her journey unfolds, she experiences the joys of romance, new friends, and recalling the wonders of her past. Remembering George Town East Julie Venditto, 2010-12-28 At five years old, Julianne doesn't want to move to George Town East, especially when she knows she'll be separated from her best friend. Still, when Julianne's dad tells her that the headless people that live in her closet and chase her down the hall won't follow her to their new house, she starts to look forward to the move. George Town East is where Julianne will spend her childhood and adolescence in the 1970s and 1980s in this memoir she recalls a simpler time growing up there Hot summer days watching television with the family riding bicycles and going to the movies were all mainstays of daily life This was a time before computers before cell phones and when children growing up didnt have a care in the world except school summer vacations and then becoming a teenager and falling in love for the first time Join Julianne as she recalls awkward teenage moments life in a small town and a time that no longer exists in Remembering George Town East State Library Bulletin.
