

9 Wake-up Calls Every Leader Needs To Know

1. If your team is failing, it's you, not them.

Powerful leaders look at themselves before blaming their team.

2. Strong leaders take things professionally, not personally.

Great leaders know their growth is in listening to constructive feedback.

3. Your title doesn't mean you're a good leader.

Do not confuse being a manager with being a great leader.

4. Favouritism destroys culture and team morale.

Consistent leadership across the entire team builds a strong team culture.

5. Stop the micro-managing, immediately.

What you call "checking in" is your lack of trust in your team doing their job.

6. Focus on your people, not the KPI.

Leadership is about developing people, not just achieving results.

7. If your team don't speak up, it's you.

A team that doesn't openly communicate indicates a fearful leader.

8. If you do not stand up for your team, don't be a leader.

Leading by example shapes team culture more than instructions.

9. Your team doesn't work for you.

The best leaders know that they are there to serve their team, not the other way around.
