A History of Stability and Change in Lebanon Joseph Bayeh, 2017-06-30 Lebanon is a country whose domestic politics have even more than others in the region been at the mercy of changes on the international stage Having been under Ottoman and French rule in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the post World War II era has seen Lebanon subjected to Israeli Syrian and American interventions which have all threatened the country's stability as a state Joseph Bayeh argues that it is this international dimension which holds the key to an in depth understanding of the country In support of this argument Bayeh examines Lebanese history from its early days under the Ottomans to the present day in order to show how international shifts and conflicts have had their impact on Lebanon With changes such as the fall of the Ottoman empire the rise of US power after World War II the end of the Cold War and the new focus on the region in the aftermath of 9 11 Lebanon has at various junctures been bolstered or undermined Bayeh tracks all of this offering insights into the workings of Lebanon's domestic politics which will appeal to researchers of the international relations of the Middle East and Lebanon's political history

Managing Change in Organizations Nadja Sörgärde, Stefan Svenningsson, 2019-11-04 In Managing Change in Organizations Stefan Svenningsson and Nadja Sörgärde explore a broad range of perspectives on change management encouraging critical reflection and making sense of a complex field of theories Their unique approach based around three key perspectives of change will help students understand How change is accomplished the tool perspective What change means for those involved the process perspective And Why is change initiated and is it necessary the critical perspective This focus on the common how what and why questions offers students the chance to learn pragmatic tools for managing change as well as gain an in depth understanding of different theories and their value The book is complemented by a range of online resources including PowerPoint Slides Multiple Choice Questions and a selection of SAGE Business Cases and journal articles Stefan Svenningsson is Professor of Business Administration at the School of Economics and Management Lund University Sweden Nadja Sörgärde is a Senior Lecturer at the School of Economics and Management Lund University Sweden

School Leadership and Educational Change in Singapore Benjamin Wong, Salleh Hairon, Pak Tee Ng, 2019-03-29 This book provides readers with insights into how Singapore school leaders are actively engaged in the transformation of the Singapore education system It brings to attention crucial elucidations of the increasing demand and complexity placed on school leaders through the use of case studies Each chapter in the book focuses on a particular issue which has become important or has gained renewed importance in the Singapore education system The chapters first provide a background to the theme under examination and a theoretical basis for discussion They then narrate the case that shows how school leaders interpret and implement policy initiatives in their respective schools or lead change in that area The case studies span over a wide range of domains such as instructional leadership assessment leadership stakeholder engagement professional learning communities and school branding The data collected from these case studies came primarily from interviews of educators in their respective school contexts in addition to other sources of data such as artifacts Each case study highlights descriptions interpretations and perspectives across school contexts which is consistent with the proposition that school leadership is very much shaped by context At the end of each chapter there are guiding questions to help readers critically analyse and reflect on the main learning points of the case
