Halvorson,2020-04-22 Code Nation explores the rise of software development as a social cultural and technical phenomenon in American history The movement germinated in government and university labs during the 1950s gained momentum through corporate and counterculture experiments in the 1960s and 1970s and became a broad based computer literacy movement in the 1980s As personal computing came to the fore learning to program was transformed by a groundswell of popular enthusiasm exciting new platforms and an array of commercial practices that have been further amplified by distributed computing and the Internet. The resulting society can be depicted as a Code Nation, a globally connected world that is saturated with computer technology and enchanted by software and its creation. Code Nation is a new history of personal computing that emphasizes the technical and business challenges that software developers faced when building applications for CP/M, MS-DOS, UNIX, Microsoft Windows, the Apple Macintosh, and other emerging platforms. It is a popular history of computing that explores the experiences of novice computer users, tinkerers, hackers, and power users, as well as the ideals and aspirations of leading computer scientists, engineers, educators, and entrepreneurs. Computer book and magazine publishers also played important, if overlooked, roles in the diffusion of new technical skills, and this book highlights their creative work and influence. Code Nation offers a behind-the-scenes look at application and operating system programming practices, the diversity of historic computer languages, the rise of user communities, early attempts to market PC software, and the origins of enterprise computing systems. Code samples and over 80 historic photographs support the text. The book concludes with an assessment of contemporary efforts to teach computational thinking to young people.

Scriptures for a Generation Philip D. Beidler, 1995-10-01. More than fifty writers from Timothy Leary and Malcolm X to Helen Gurley Brown and Rachel Carson are individually profiled in this lively survey of the literature of the 1960s. A look at the books behind the decade's youth movements, Scriptures for a Generation recalls the era as one of unprecedented literacy and belief in the power of books to change society. In showing that the generation that came of age in the 60s marked both the height and the end of the last great reading culture, Philip D. Beidler also implies much about the state of literacy in our country today. Featured are bona fide 1960s classics ranging from Kahlil Gibran's The Prophet and Kurt Vonnegut's Slaughterhouse-Five to Carlos Castaneda's The Teachings of Don Juan and the Boston Women's Health Book Collective's Our Bodies, Ourselves Represented, as well as such works of revered elders as Hermann Hesse's Steppenwolf and Henry David Thoreau's Walden. Beidler's coverage also extends to works of the early 1970s that are textual and spiritual extensions of the 1960s: the Portola Institute's Last Whole Earth Catalog, Annie Dillard's Pilgrim at Tinker Creek, Robert Pirsig's Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance, and others.

The Survival Bible Bert Darga, 1982

Antiquarian, Specialty, and Used Book Sellers James M. Ethridge, Karen Ethridge, 1993. This new reference work lists geographically some 3000 U.S. book dealers of antiquarian, specialty, and used books, providing address, telephone, and FAX numbers, hours, stock size, and specialties. It also indicates whether the shop issues catalogs or undertakes special services such as appraisals and searches. Indexes allow access by subject, store name, and owner/manager. The volume invites comparison with R.R. Bowker's American Book Trade Directory (ABTD), now in its 38th edition, which lists bookstores dealing in both secondhand and new books and covers Canada as well as the United States ABTD lists 3 483 used and antiquarian dealers among its nearly 31 000 entries Both works have gaps and ABTD doesn t note hours Though booksellers collectors special collections and rare book rooms are likely to prefer the volume under review especially because it costs so much less general collections already possessing ABTD can probably pass on this new title The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1986
