organization to the top of your industry Closing the Equity Gap Freada Kapor Klein, Mitchell Kapor, 2023-03-14 A social activist and an entrepreneur remake the future of investing and business offering a win win road map for creating wealth and addressing inequalities by investing in groundbreaking tech companies that defy assumptions from Silicon Valley to Wall Street Companies backed by venture capital drive the U S economy accounting for hundreds of billions of dollars in sales and profits The problem is that most of the wealth created winds up enriching elites while the businesses funded by venture capitalists widen economic inequality Committed to doing things differently tech venture capitalists Freada Kapor Klein and Mitch Kapor launched Kapor Capital to prove that investing in gap closing startups companies whose services or products close opportunity gaps for both communities of color and low income communities is good business Over the past decade they ve broadened the definition of success to include profits and accountability for the impacts a business has on employees communities and the planet helping to launch close to two hundred companies engaged in achieving social and economic justice while showing remarkable growth with many valued in the hundreds of millions or billions of dollars Like every VC firm Kapor Capital has experienced high profile blowups and total losses But its investing principles have created a stunning new ecosystem of Black and Latinx entrepreneurs CEOs and investors all devising innovative effective solutions to address the most pernicious problems afflicting many of America s poorest communities In Closing the Equity Gap Freada and Mitch share their core belief that all companies must make a positive impact and that the obstacles entrepreneurs overcome in life are a far better predictor of long term success than the schools they attend or investment dollars they raise from friends and family Using stories behind some of the most remarkable companies ever launched they show that the standard investment model doesn t work how it can be fixed and what the future could look like if more investors joined them Power Moms Joann S. Lublin, 2021-02-16 A retired Wall Street Journal editor and mother compares two generations of women boomers and GenXers to examine how each navigates the emotional and professional challenges involved in juggling managerial careers and families For the first time in American history a significant number of mothers are heading major corporations including General Motors Ulta Beauty and Best Buy Over the past several decades women have made gains throughout executive suites Yet these Power Moms still struggle with balancing their management responsibilities with raising children Joann S Lublin draws on the experiences of the nation s two generations of these successful women to measure how far we ve come and how far we still need to go Lublin combines her own insights with those of eighty five executive mothers across industries including experienced public company chiefs such as Carol Bartz the first woman to command Autodesk and Yahoo Hershey s Michele Buck DuPont s Ellen Kullman ITT s Denise Ramos and WW International s Mindy Grossman and twenty five of their grown daughters Lublin reveals how trailblazer boomers many now in their sixties often endured sweeping disapproval for their demanding management careers even as their own daughters sometimes rejected their choices While the second wave of executive mothers all under forty five handle working parenthood with less angst they still lead stressful lives Power Moms provides lessons and advice to help today's professional women, their families, and their employers navigate this challenging terrain. Lublin looks at the trade-offs mothers are too often forced to make between work and family and the root causes, including the dearth of large-scale paid parental leave and other family-friendly policies. While it celebrates the gains women have made, Power Moms makes clear how much more must be done to make being a working mother easier. The Methodist Review, 1904 Gardeners' Chronicle, 1893 Startup Program Design: A Practical Guide for Creating Accelerators and Incubators at Any Organization Paolo Lombardi, Adam Berk, 2022-06-28 Design and execute a powerful startup program that delivers value for all parties involved. Startup accelerators, business incubators, hackathons—these are the hallmarks of the innovation ecosystem development practices used to discover, launch, and scale the most forward-looking startups of the last decade. If you want to adopt these approaches to your own business but aren't sure how to implement them, now's the time to master the practices of today's most successful early-stage investors. In Startup Program Design, two seasoned veterans deeply versed in startup engagement programs provide you with the tools to introduce open innovation practices to your organization. While other books on innovation management tend to be conceptual at the expense of hands-on experience, Startup Program Design is a practical manual vertically focused on preparing the organization, identifying the right strategy, and designing an attractive and effective offer. Filled with real-world examples, interviews with program managers, lessons learned, and diagrams and canvases that outline a step-by-step logical sequence, Startup Program Design points you toward results that are scalable and repeatable. Whether you're an innovation manager, executive consultant, service designer, business owner, or startup community activist, this first-of-its-kind guide offers a radical new framework for true innovation. The Methodist Review, 1904 The Country Gentleman, 1917 Breaking into Venture: An Outsider Turned Venture Capitalist Shares How to Take Risks, Create Power, and Build Life-Changing Wealth Allison Baum Gates, 2023-03-07 Unparalleled insight into how the powerful, profitable, and exclusive industry of venture capital works, especially for those who are not already part of the club. Although most people know nothing about them, venture capitalists are the small yet elite group of people funding and shaping world-changing technology businesses like Google, Facebook, Uber, and Amazon.
