Siones Talo:

Sione's Talo Lino Nelisi, 1992 Sione finds a huge talo i e Taro growing on his plantation and calls his family to help him pull it up but they are only successful with the help of an ant Suggested level preschool junior Scholastic Literacy Place, 1996 Boletín Sociedad Ibérica de Ciencias Naturales, 1910 Boletín de la Sociedad Aragonesa de Ciencias Naturales, 1910 Botánica descriptiva Blas Lázaro é Ibiza, 1920 The Oxford Handbook of Ergativity Jessica Coon, Diane Massam, Lisa deMena Travis, 2017-06-15 This volume offers theoretical and descriptive perspectives on the issues pertaining to ergativity a grammatical patterning whereby direct objects are in some way treated like intransitive subjects to the exclusion of transitive subjects This pattern differs markedly from nominative accusative marking whereby transitive and intransitive subjects are treated as one grammatical class to the exclusion of direct objects While ergativity is sometimes referred to as a typological characteristic of languages research on the phenomenon has shown that languages do not fall clearly into one category or the other and that ergative characteristics are not consistent across languages Chapters in this volume look at approaches to ergativity within generative typological and functional paradigms as well as approaches to the core morphosyntactic building blocks of an ergative construction related constructions such as the anti passive related properties such as split ergativity and word order and extensions and permutations of ergativity including nominalizations and voice systems The volume also includes results from experimental investigations of ergativity a relatively new area of research A wide variety of languages are represented both in the theoretical chapters and in the 16 case studies that are more descriptive in nature attesting to both the pervasiveness and diversity of ergative patterns Sports Shots Andrew Ward, 1993 Triggers Anne Breitbarth, Henk van Riemsdijk, 2008-08-22 The concept of trigger is a core concept of Chomsky's Minimalist Program The idea that certain types of movement are triggered by some property of the target position is at least as old as the notion that the movement of noun phrases to the subject position is triggered by their need to receive nominative case In more recent versions of syntactic theory triggering mechanisms are thought to regulate all of movement Furthermore a quite narrow range of triggering mechanisms is permitted As is to be expected such a restrictive approach meets a variety of difficulties Specifically the question is whether all triggering elements required to cover displacement of all kinds in natural language can be independently motivated Further how can a trigger theory which crucially relies on the idea that all movement is obligatory deal with apparently optional movement processes Are features an adequate means to express the triggering function in all cases More radically are all movement phenomena really the result of the checking of trigger features And what about apparent triggering factors that are external to syntax such as prosody can they be captured in a rigid trigger theory In other words could certain aspects of triggered movement be due to interface conditions Such is the range of questions addressed by the fourteen contributions to this book They cover a considerable range of languages including Afrikaans Breton Bulgarian Dutch English French German Gungbe Hungarian Italian Japanese Kiswahili Romanian

These papers present materials both empirical and theoretical that will not fail to have considerable impact on the further development of the concept of trigger in syntactic theory Learning Niuean Aiao Kaulima, Clive H. Beaumont, 2000 One of the few print resources on learning the Niuean language Follows on from A First Book for Learning Niuean designed for adult or secondary school learners Those of intermediate school level may also be able to use it Contains units 11-14 of the combined edition It also has a summary of the grammar of the first book The vocabulary lists cover both books Survive! Carl Walrond, 2015-02-11 New Zealanders love exploring the outdoors but when things go wrong why do some people survive and some don't Carl Walrond uses contemporary and historical accounts of mishaps and adventures to reveal interesting truths about survival In doing so he finds that the mind and the tricks it plays can be just as challenging as the wilderness itself Brotéria, 1912 Ergativity Alana Johns, Diane Massam, Juvenal Ndayiragije, 2006-02-14 The overarching theme of this volume is the formal expression of the range and limits of ergativity The book contains cutting edge theoretical papers by top authors in the field who also conduct original field work and bring new data to light It contains articles that apply the most recent theoretical tools to the area of ergativity and then explore the issues that emerge Languages investigated in the text include Basque Georgian and Hindi Pacific Profiles Robert A. C. Stewart, 1982 Ko e talo ha Sione Lino Nelisi, 1994 Sione finds a huge talo i e taro growing on his plantation and calls his family to help him pull it up but they are only successful with the help of an ant Suggested level preschool junior New Zealand Books in Print, 1998 Stráž na sione, 1913 New Zealand Books in Print 2004 Thorpe-Bowker Staff, 2004-06 Directory containing updated bibliographic information on all in print New Zealand books 33rd edition of an annual publication The 12 500 book entries are listed by title and there is an index to authors Also provided are details of 975 publishers and distributors and local agents of overseas publishers The book trade directory includes contacts for trade organisations booksellers public libraries and specialised suppliers NZ literary awards and past winners and sources of financial assistance for writers and publishers Seminarios de estratigrafia, Il Policlinico, 1900 Pasifika Women Sandra Kailahi, 2007 Sandra Kailahi has interviewed 20 Pacific women that have worked tirelessly within the New Zealand community to better the lives of their peoples Included are politicians artists writers church representatives sportswomen community leaders and many more The interviews cover early lives to the present and showcase the strengths and depths of knowledge the women contribute to New Zealand society every day Each biography is accompanied by Eimi Tamua's beautifully shot portrait as well as imagery from the contributors' private collections of photographs
