The Song of the Sirens Pietro Pucci, 1998 In this collection of his essays on Homer some new and some appearing for the first time in English the distinguished scholar Pietro Pucci examines the linguistic and rhetorical features of the poet's works Arguing that there can be no purely historical interpretation given that the parameters of interpretation are themselves historically determined Pucci focuses instead on two features of Homer's rhetoric repetition of expression formulae and its effects on meaning and the issue of intertextuality      Music of the Sirens Linda Austern, Inna Naroditskaya, 2006-07-21 Whether referred to as mermaid usalka mami wata or by some other name and whether considered an imaginary being or merely a person with extraordinary abilities the siren is the remarkable creature that has inspired music and its representations from ancient Greece to present day Africa and Latin America This book co edited by a historical musicologist and an ethnomusicologist brings together leading scholars and some talented newcomers in classics music media studies literature and cultural studies to consider the siren and her multifaceted relationships to music across human time and geography      Cogito and the Unconscious Slavoj Žižek, 1998-04-08 The Cartesian cogito the principle articulated by Descartes that I think therefore I am is often hailed as the precursor of modern science At the same time the cogito's agent the ego is sometimes feared as the agency of manipulative domination responsible for all present woes from patriarchal oppression to ecological catastrophes Without psychoanalyzing philosophy Cogito and the Unconscious explores the vicissitudes of the cogito and shows that psychoanalyses can render visible a constitutive madness within modern philosophy the point at which I think therefore I am becomes obsessional neurosis characterized by If I stop thinking I will cease to exist Noting that for Lacan the Cartesian construct is the same as the Freudian subject of the unconscious the contributors follow Lacan's plea for a psychoanalytic return to the cogito Along the path of this return they examine the ethical attitude that befits modern subjectivity the inherent sexualization of modern subjectivity the impasse in which the Cartesian project becomes involved given the enigmatic status of the human body and the Cartesian subject's confrontation with its modern critics including Althusser Bataille and Deleuze In a style that has become familiar to Žižek's readers these essays bring together a strict conceptual analysis and an approach to a wide range of cultural and ideological phenomena from the sadist paradoxes of Kant's moral philosophy to the universe of Ayn Rand's novels from the question Which if any is the sex of the cogito to the defense of the cogito against the onslaught of cognitive sciences Challenging us to reconsider fundamental notions of human consciousness and modern subjectivity this is a book whose very Lacanian orthodoxy makes it irreverently transgressive of predominant theoretical paradigms Cogito and the Unconscious will appeal to readers interested in philosophy psychoanalysis cultural studies and theories of ideology Contributors Miran Božović Mladen Dolar Alain Grosrichard Marc de Kessel Robert Pfaller Renata Salecl Slavoj Žižek Alenka Zupancić      The Sirens' Song Maurice
