Sister Cities A World Of Difference:

Sister Cities Leslie Burger, Debra L. Rahm, 1996 Discusses the bridges of friendship and understanding that have been built using the concept of sister cities Illustrated World ... ,1912 The Technical World Magazine ,1912 Big Ships Turn Slowly ,1989 Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2012-03-31 Today is a new metropolitan age and for the first time ever more people live in cities than they do anywhere else As cities strengthen their international and cultural influence the global world is acted out most articulately in the world's urban hubs through its diverse cultures broad networks and innovative styles of governance Looking at the city through its internal dynamics the book examines how governance and cultural policy play out in a national and international framework Making a truly global contribution to the literature the editors bring together a truly international and highly respected bevy of scholars In doing so they skilfully steer debates beyond the city as an economic powerhouse to cover issues that fully comprehend a city's cultural dynamics and its impact on policy including alternative economies creativity migration diversity sustainability education and urban planning Innovative in its approach and content this book is ideal for students scholars and researchers interested in sociology urban studies cultural studies and public policy Los Alamos Science ,1996 Technical World Magazine ,1912 Crossing Borders, Reinforcing Borders Pablo Vila, 2013-08-28 Along the U S Mexico frontier where border crossings are a daily occurrence for many people reinforcing borders is also a common activity Not only does the U S Border Patrol strive to hold the line against illegal immigrants but many residents on both sides of the border seek to define and bound themselves apart from groups they perceive as others This pathfinding ethnography charts the social categories metaphors and narratives that inhabitants of El Paso and Ciudad Ju rez use to define their group identity and distinguish themselves from others Pablo Vila draws on over 200 group interviews with more than 900 area residents to describe how Mexican nationals Mexican immigrants Mexican Americans African Americans and Anglos make sense of themselves and perceive their differences from others This research uncovers the regionalism by which many northern Mexicans construct their sense of identity the nationalism that often divides Mexican Americans from Mexican nationals and the role of ethnicity in setting boundaries among Anglos Mexicans and African Americans Vila also looks at how gender age religion and class intertwine with these factors He concludes with fascinating excerpts from re interviews with several informants who modified their views of other groups when confronted by the author with the narrative character of their identities Book Review Digest ,1998 The Eyes of the World Harold Bell Wright, 1914 Best Books for Children, Preschool Through Grade 6 ,2006 USIA World ,1995 Best Books for Children Catherine Barr, 2006 Contains more than 25 000 titles of books recommended for children in grades K 6 International Programs Newsletter Indiana University.
