Truman's Court Frances Rudko, 1988-09-28 A concise well written examination by a lawyer historian of the judicial restraint philosophies of President Truman s four appointees to the Supreme Court Harold Burton Fred Vinson Tom Clark and Sherman Minton Rudko s analysis of the four men s opinions in criminal procedure loyalty security racial discrimination and alien rights cases show that Truman was far more successful than most presidents in choosing justices whose view of the judicial role matched his own Choice Much of the debate surrounding the Supreme Court can be traced to the notion that the Court is primarily a political rather than a judicial institution When the Court is viewed from an ideological standpoint it becomes tempting for example to equate judicial restraint with conservatism and activism with a liberal political perspective In her study of the Truman Court Rudko demonstrates the fallacy of the political approach Focusing of the record of President Truman s four liberal appointees she looks at the judicial philosophy underlying important decisions involving the rights of individuals and shows how judicial issues especially the balance between restraint and activism have determined the decision making process Playwrights of Color Meg Swanson,1999 A selection of plays by fifteen playwrights of color each accompanied by a contextual essay that provides relevant historical sociological cultural and historical backgrounds Silas Bradford's Boy Joseph Crosby Lincoln,1928
