Antoon De Baets, 2018-12-13 Crimes against History takes a global approach to the extreme forms of censorship to which history and historians have been subjected through the ages The book opens by considering the varieties of censorship from suppression dismissal and defamation to persecution and murder Part I Kill switch tells the tragic story of how the censorship of history has sometimes turned into deadly crimes against history with chapters looking at topics such as historians and archivists being killed for political reasons attacks by political leaders on historians iconoclastic breaks with the past and fake news Part II Fragile freedom reverses the perspective and examines how the censorship of history has backfired Chapters consider the subversive power of historical analogies and resistance to the censorship of history The book also contains a Provisional memorial for history producers killed for political reasons from ancient times until 2017 It is a double tribute to the history producers who were killed and to those who mustered the courage to resist the blows of censorship The Arnoldian, 1984 History of the Forty-sixth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry United States. Susko, 2025-01-17 Generational Key to History Tracing Phases From Ancient Egypt to America This work reveals how generations form the hidden rhythm of history By charting time in 15 year generational intervals an approach first used by the medieval historian Bede and later championed by the twentieth century philosopher Jos Ortega y Gasset the author uncovers distinct phases that recur across civilizations Rather than relying solely on yearly dating which can fragment historical awareness this generational lens exposes history's deeper coherence The phases found are 1 Beginnings and testing 0 15 generations 2 Establishment and unifying image beginning at 15 20 generations 3 Consolidation and opening up 30 generations 4 Crisis and creativity 40 generations 5 Universalization and inclusion 50 generations and 6 Renewal or rigidification 60 generations Through detailed case studies Egypt Israel Judah Rome the Medieval Modern era and the United States the author shows how each culture moves through these generational arcs revealing a pattern that mirrors the human life cycle The 30th generation often neglected by historians emerges as a pivotal phase of openness justice and illumination In sum A Rosetta Key for History does not merely present a new way to measure time it reveals the living architecture of history itself Across continents and centuries generations become the Rosetta key for understanding time's unfolding design Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People, 1908 Royal Windsor history readers Thomas Nelson & Sons, 1897 Trail of Madness Ken Stichter, 2018-01-03 It is 1966 in the Sierra Nevada backcountry Allison Connors has been waiting years to carry out her plan As darkness falls and a drunken beast emerges from their tent to relieve himself Allison pushes him over a
