Solid Bluestone Foundations:

Intimate afterlives of empire Astrid Rasch, 2025-09-02 Through close readings of almost twenty autobiographies written after the break up of the British Empire the book examines how individuals engage with the changing narrative landscape brought about by decolonisation It considers the autobiographies less for what they may teach us about the moment remembered and more as windows on the act of remembering This adds a crucial dimension to our understanding of the legacies of colonialism and how the ongoing process of decolonisation is reflected on the level of the individual It argues that autobiographers are at once influenced by and seek to influence the cultural memory of empire and its legacies and the authors own position in both Situated at the intersection of imperial decolonisation history memory studies and life writing studies the book uncovers this intimate afterlife of empire

Brimming Cup Elizabeth Kleinhenz, 2013-11-01 Kathleen Fitzpatrick born in 1905 was the grand daughter of Melbourne real estate agent JR Buxton whose investments in land and housing brought him wealth and significantly influenced much of his city s early development In her memoir Solid Bluestone Foundations described by her great friend Manning Clark as a magnificent book of memories Kathleen painted an evocative picture of family life at her grandparents mansion Hughenden in Middle Park and of middle class living in early twentieth century Melbourne In adulthood she went on to become a brilliant academic and teacher whose former pupils became some of Australia s finest historians and intellectuals But she was also a lonely woman with a low view of her own worth as a writer and scholar Through meticulous research Elizabeth Kleinhenz uncovers what lay behind the mask that Kathleen Fitzpatrick presented to the world Capable of deep love she was almost vainly self conscious She was witty but cutting proud but ashamed could be arrogant and overbearing but also modest to the point of subservience An accomplished thinker she allowed the major insights of second wave feminism to pass her by After her marriage failed she never again had an open relationship A Brimming Cup tells the story of Kathleen s outstanding academic career her contributions to social and political debates of the day her relationships and her successes and disappointments as a historian writer and woman of her time

Shameful Autobiographies Rosamund Dalziell, 2018-07-04 Writing autobiography is a risky business What is shameful can be inadvertently rather than deliberately revealed Yet reading autobiography can also be risky as it may lead to the confrontation of shame in ourselves Perhaps it is this element of risk together with the magnetism of another person s confession of shameful experience that make us such avid readers of autobiography Rosamund Dalziell proposes that shame is the driving force in many Australian autobiographies Indeed she suggests that the representation of shame is fundamental to the autobiographical process Shame seeks concealment and this she argues explains both why this fascinating link has not before been explored and why when it is pointed out we immediately know it to be authentic Shameful Autobiographies looks at pervasive patterns of shame in the autobiographies of such leading Australian writers as Germaine Greer Sally Morgan Bernard Smith Kathleen Fitzpatrick Morris Lurie Ruby Langford Ginibi and Robert Dessaix In so doing it establishes the centrality of shame to problems of Australian identity and to current political debate for instance it is shame that fuels angry repudiations of the so called black armband view of history The calm clarity of Rosamund Dalziell s writing strengthens her powerful insights and arguments the most potent of which is that autobiographical confrontation with shame can heal deep wounds both for writers and for readers This mature and innovative book will enrich the experience of all readers of autobiography

Solid Bluestone Foundations Kathleen Fitzpatrick,2015-09-08 Hughenden the seaside mansion of Kathleen s grandparents provided the solid bluestone foundations of her somewhat peripatetic youth offering her a haven of emotional security and material abundance The puzzled observations and alert curiosity of a highly intelligent child are vividly recreated in these beautifully written recollections which paint an evocative picture of middle class life in Melbourne in the early years of the twentieth century The divisions between her Catholic and Protestant grandparents and the contrast between the dedicated civil servants on one side of the family and the energetic entrepreneurs on the other are depicted with the sharp eyed acuity of youth Kathleen s mediocre schooling the awakening of her feminist consciousness her discovery at the University of Melbourne of her true vocation as a historian and her unhappy experiences at Oxford are major themes of her memoir The book is greatly enhanced by Susan Davies Introduction family tree and other materials offering valuable new insights and information for historians those interested in women s lives and scholars of Australian autobiography First time readers as well as those already familiar with Solid Bluestone Foundations will welcome this elegant new edition of Kathleen Fitzpatrick s charming recollection of an Australian childhood
