
TEACHERS' TALES

MY WONDERFUL JOURNEY

BY ARMIN SODAWATERWALA

Have you experienced a racing heartbeat, cold sweaty palms, nervous smile, and dry mouth right before getting on a roller coaster? Well, I, too have encountered it on the first day I held my lecture on an online platform in the year 2020. A year that the world will not forget for a long time as the Covid 19 pandemic struck it. The world as a whole, along with the teachers and students, grappled with being online and subsequently adapted to it, but the journey for the teachers has been long and hard.

My wonderful Journey of being a teacher started seven years back. The prospect of entering a class and facing new students every semester is both thrilling and challenging at the same time. It is always a pleasure to see bright-eyed students full of dreams and aspirations for their future. The journey that started with making eye contact with sixty pairs of eyes in a classroom full of energy and synergy changed to staring into a tiny opening of a camera where I made virtual contact with my students. How did we land ourselves into this situation?
