Changes in the Landscape is a collection of timely essays that bring the methodologies and commitments of ecocriticism to bear on the study of Latin American literature and cultural production
 The book's eleven chapters written by some of the leading voices in the field invite readers to consider how the relationship between humans and nonhuman nature was fundamentally transformed during a period when new modes of capitalist production were emerging in the region and around the world
 Jennifer L. French's introductory essay provides a historical and theoretical framework for the collection
 Ranging from the immediate aftermath of the Spanish American Wars of Independence 1810-1826 to the early twentieth century 1925 the volume's essays cover a wide variety of genres and forms of cultural production from Jos Hernandez's epic poem Martin Fierro to prose fiction painting and photography and the personal albums compiled by Spanish American women
 Individually and collectively the essays engage with scientific writing as both a discourse of power and a source of potentially significant even revelatory information about human and nonhuman nature
Changes in the Landscape enables readers to more fully understand the transition from colonial regimes to the ecocidal extractivism of the export boom 1870-1930 by drawing out and analyzing some of the cognitive resources and rhetorical strategies that were available to imagine protest or enact new norms and expectations regarding the relations between human and nonhuman life be it the life of wildflowers waterfalls or Cuba's Ci naga de Zapata
