Greenshields,1981 Challenges for Rural America in the Twenty-First Century David L. Brown,Louis E. Swanson,2002-12-15 The twentieth century was one of profound transformation in rural America Demographic shifts and economic restructuring have conspired to alter dramatically the lives of rural people and their communities Challenges for Rural America in the Twenty First Century defines these changes and interprets their implications for the future of rural America The volume follows in the tradition of decennial volumes co edited by presidents of the Rural Sociological Society and published in the Society s Rural Studies Series Essays have been specially commissioned to examine key aspects of public policy relevant to rural America in the new century Contributors include Lionel Beaulieu Alessandro Bonnano David Brown Ralph Brown Frederick Buttel Ted Bradshaw Douglas Constance Steve Daniels Lynn England William Falk Cornelia Flora Jan Flora Glenn Fuguitt Nina Glasgow Leland Glenna Angela Gonzales Gary Green Rosalind Harris Tom Hirschl Douglas Jackson Smith Leif Jensen Ken Johnson Richard Krannich Daniel Lichter Linda Lobao Al Luloff Tom Lyson Kate MacTavish David McGranahan Diane McLaughlin Philip McMichael Lois Wright Morton Domenico Parisi Peggy Petrzelka Kenneth Pigg Rogelio Saenz Sonya Salamon Jeff Sharp Curtis Stofferahn Louis Swanson Ann Tickameyer Leanne Tigges Cruz Torres Mildred Warner Ronald Wimberley Dreamal Worthen and Julie Zimmerman The Rural Challenge to the Cities Orville L. Freeman,1968 Rural Challenge ,1999 Rural Challenge: the Story So Far Rural Development Commission,1997 Accessibility Malcolm J Moseley,2025-08 Originally published in 1979 this book discusses the problem faced by planners county councils transport health and education authorities as well as the inhabitants of rural Britain of the inaccessibility of many areas of the UK For certain sections of society such as the less well off children and teenagers and the elderly the impact is felt most strongly when local shops schools and medical services are withdrawn in favour of larger units in distant towns The book reviews the process of decline which led to this situation and considers the concept of accessibility to show how it can be developed into an analytical tool for measuring the success or failure of alternative policies Each policy option is discussed in detail the support of conventional bus or other transport services the provision of mobile services mini outlet policies and the long term restructuring of the rural settlement pattern

The Rural South In Crisis Lionel J Beaulieu,2019-07-09 This book captures the views of students of rural America on the serious state of affaire in rural South areas and on the strategies for stimulating improvements in the well being of rural Southerners It spurs policymakers leaders and rural residents to redress the ills of the rural South Resources in Education ,2000-10 The Challenge of the Country George Walter Fiske,1913 The Rural Challenge Dale Knapp,2020 This report is the first of two on rural depopulation It explores rural population changes nationally and how Wisconsin counties are faring compared to their counterparts elsewhere It also looks at some of the consequences of depopulation including job loss a shrinking workforce fewer businesses and slow income growth A follow up report will examine the key factors behind depopulation and identify policies or actions that might be adopted to stem rural decline from page 3

International Handbook of Research on Environmental Education Robert B. Stevenson,Michael Brody,Justin Dillon,Arjen E.J. Wals,2013-05-02 The environment and contested notions of sustainability are increasingly topics of public interest political debate and legislation across the world Environmental education journals now publish research from a wide variety of methodological traditions that show linkages between the environment health development and education The growth in scholarship makes this an opportune time to review and synthesize the knowledge base of the environmental education EE field The purpose of this 51 chapter handbook is not only to illuminate the most important concepts findings and theories that have been developed by EE research but also to critically examine the historical progression of the field its current debates and controversies what is still missing from the EE research agenda and where that agenda might be headed Published for the American Educational Research Association AERA

The Power of Planning Oren Yiftachel,Jo Little,David Hedgcock,Ian Alexander,2002-04-30 The book addresses critically the question What is the societal impact of urban and regional planning It begins with a theoretical discussion and then analyses through a series of case studies the intentions contents struggles and consequences of urban and regional planning It shows that plans and policies often defy the commonly perceived role of advancing equality justice development and amenity by causing social problems marginalisation and inequalities The book looks at planning from a critical distance without a priori belief in its necessity or usefulness The 12 chapters written by renowned international scholars demonstrate the multiplicity of social and political struggles over the contested terrain of spatial policies The book focuses on four key areas where the impact of planning is explored the community power gender relations ethnic tensions and social polarisation while comparing three societies Australia Israel and England Audience This volume is mainly intended for faculty and students of academia but also for urban professionals and policy makers The book is relevant to fields such as urban and regional planning geography political science urban studies urban sociology urban anthropology ethnic and gender relations
