love Dinosaurs Judith E. Greenberg, Helen H. Carey, Helen Carey McKeever, 1990 Describes different kinds of dinosaurs theories about why the dinosaurs disappeared and the work of paleontologists The Bone Wars Jane Kurtz, 2023-11-21 Discover the true story of the race between two paleontologists to find the best dinosaur fossils in this fascinating fast paced nonfiction picture book Who will win the Bone Wars Did you know that many of the dinosaur skeletons you see in museums are rooted in a scientific battle between two paleontologists O C Marsh and Edward Cope met in 1863 and bonded over their shared love of fossils becoming the best of friends until the day Marsh discovered an error in Cope s work and the Bone Wars began Marsh and Cope stopped collaborating and started competing excavating fossils as fast as they could and trying to find the most important never before seen discoveries They each wanted the biggest best dinosaur bones And fast They used code names and disguises they snooped and tricked and did everything possible to keep their finds secret The race was messy and there were many mistakes along the way but in the end Marsh and Cope discovered all kinds of new dinosaur skeletons to share with the world fossils we still get to see today Prehistoric Journeys April Rhodes James, 2012-04-25 Dinosaurs indelible real life characters and a dramatic plunge down a judicial rabbit hole that occurs more often than imaginable The book has been described as soul searching a roller coaster ride and movie material it has in fact now been adapted as a script It charts the unique journey of a small family the unconditional support of community both local and national and lessons learned as the result of amazing entrepreneurial experiences All in all it tells a compelling true story of survival despite curious challenges This book is a Thank You and a message of possibility to anyone who promotes inspiration through honest intent Nickolai's Quest , Rebels, Scholars, Explorers Annalisa Berta, Susan Turner, 2020-10-27 Unearthing the amazing hidden stories of women who changed paleontology forever For centuries women have played key roles in defining and developing the field of vertebrate paleontology Yet very little is known about these important paleontologists and the true impacts of their contributions have remained obscure In Rebels Scholars Explorers Annalisa Berta and Susan Turner celebrate the history of women bone hunters delving into their fascinating lives and work At the same time they explore how the discipline has shaped our understanding of the history of life on Earth Berta and Turner begin by presenting readers with a review of the emergence of vertebrate paleontology as a science emphasizing the contributions of women to research topics and employment This is followed by brief biographical sketches and explanations of early discoveries by women around the world over the past 200 years including those who held roles as researchers educators curators artists and preparators Forging new territory Berta and Turner highlight the barriers and challenges faced by women paleontologists describing how some managed to overcome those obstacles in order to build careers in the field Finally drawing on interviews with a diverse group of contemporary paleontologists who share their experiences and offer recommendations to aspiring fossil hunters they provide perspectives on what work still needs to be done in order to ensure that women s contributions to the field are encouraged and celebrated Uncovering and relating lost stories about the pivotal contributions Dinosaurs and Other Extinct Saurians Richard Moody, 2010. The discovery of dinosaurs and other large extinct saurians, a term under which the Victorians commonly lumped ichthyosaurs, plesiosaurs, pterosaurs, and their kin, makes exciting reading and has caught the attention of palaeontologists, historians of science, and the general public alike. The papers in this collection go beyond the familiar tales about famous fossil hunters and focus on relatively little-known episodes in the discovery and interpretation from both a scientific and an artistic point of view of dinosaurs and other inhabitants of the Mesozoic world. They cover a long time span from the beginnings of modern scientific palaeontology in the 1700s to the present and deal with many parts of the world from the Yorkshire coast to Central India, from Bavaria to the Sahara. The characters in these stories include professional palaeontologists and geologists, some of them well-known, others quite obscure, explorers, amateur fossil collectors, and artists, linked together by their interest in Mesozoic creatures. Dinosaurs of the East Coast David B. Weishampel, Luther Young, 1996-05-21. The great dinosaur bonebeds of the American and Canadian West are world famous for spectacular fossil yields. But the eastern U.S. and maritime Canada have been equally important to the study of these extraordinary creatures. Dinosaurs of the East Coast combines science, history, and modern reporting to offer a new look at an always fascinating subject. 29 lines, 110 halftone illustrations. Doris and the Dinosaur Hilliard Booth, 1922. The Week in China, 1929. Cleveland Women's Journal, 1917. On Blueberry Hill Marcella Thompson, 1994. On Blueberry Hill by Marcella Thompson, released on Jun 24, 1994, is available now for purchase. The Dinosaur Filmography Mark F. Berry, 2002. One appendix gives capsule entries for films that deal only briefly with dinosaurs; another lists films never made or never completed; a third covers Toho Studio's quasi-dinosaurs. The Revenge of the Dinosaur Lady Mary Humphrey Baldrige, 2008. Jamie, One Child's Journey from Oral to Written Language Maribeth Nelson Lartz, Jana M.
