Robert T. Jeffrey

The Doors Of Redemption:

The Doors of Redemption Geoffrey J. Fox,2010-02-01 Confusion pain guilt anger and grief the emotions were raw and agonizing This is what Tristan felt as he sat staring into the Great Sea on this the evening of his mother s funeral Her death was his fault he knew her blood had been spilled due to his own ignorance A man sat next to him on this lonely stretch of beach After the introduction and pleasantries were dispensed the stranger offered him a deal The deal was simple an eye for an eye a life for a life If Tristan were to liberate this man s king from incarceration from the palace of Redemption he would bring Tristan s mother back to life Had it been any other night and any other promised ending Tristan would have laughed in the strangers face and vacated from the offer But this wasn t any other night or anything to laugh about this was his mother s life Tristan wondered if it could be true more so how could this be true But in that proposal he found hope and that hope would silence any questions of merit he had leading him on a journey to Redemption

The Doors of Redemption 2: Return to Redemption Geoffrey J. Fox,2009-11-23 Redemption is waiting Return to Redemption is the spine tingling conclusion to The Doors of Redemption As Tristan returns to his mission he discovers nothing is how he left it with his former steps not the locations the players not even the time The one remaining constant is the Blamoth King and his desire for the power of Redemption With that power he intends to destroy what is left of this sad world and then rule the darkness that remains If Tristan is to stop the Blamoth King and save the world from this horrid fate he will need to Return to Redemption Join him on this epic journey 4 out of 4 stars

Redemption's Flight Lucke Levine,2018-12-11 If you re struggling to turn your life around to find meaning and stability then the time has come to stand still and surrender Bella was always running At age eighteen years old she ran away from home to find answers to her troubled life Her path led to dangerous places where her struggles continued into adulthood She hadn t envisioned it to be this way for the consequences of her decisions sent her in a downward spiral always fighting to escape the chaos that threatened her very existence and that of her loved ones But amidst the turmoil of her day to day living there was always a welcome intervention that she didn t quite understand as she continued her trail of bad choices until she was at the brink of utter darkness What she didn t know was that someone was following her pursuing her every step of the way At work one night in the maternity nursery amidst a unit of sleeping newborns she came face to face with her pursuer Will she keep running or surrender once and for all Truth and Work.
