Fictions of Authority Susan Sniader Lanser,1992 Annotation Writing from positions of cultural exclusion women have faced constraints not only upon the content of fiction but upon the act of narration itself Narrative voice thus becomes a matter not simply of technique but of social authority how to speak publicly to whom and in whose name Susan Sniader Lanser here explores patterns of narration in a wide range of novels by women of England France and the United States from the 1740s to the present Drawing upon narratological and feminist theory Lanser sheds new light on the history of voice as a narrative strategy and as a means of attaining social power

Women and Gender in Medieval Europe Margaret Schaus,2006 Publisher description

Fruits of Her Plume Helena Goscilo,1993 A collection of 13 essays of literary and gender issue analysis engaging some of the blossoming literary output of women in the glasnost and post glasnost era writings that also happen to be some of the most colorful and thought provoking examples of recent Russian culture The theoretical and critical positions of the contributors are refreshingly diverse Paper edition unseen 18 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Russian Medical Humanities Melissa L. Miller,Konstantin Starikov,2021-09-20 For the first time in English The Russian Medical Humanities Past and Present argues that the medical humanities is a vibrant and emerging field in Post Soviet Russia In a unique collaboration that brings together diverse experts from both Russia and America this volume showcases the Russian medical humanities as an interdisciplinary project that combines insights from philosophy bioethics anthropology history and literature in order to provide more compassionate medical care to patients in the twenty first century The chapters in this volume explore past and present humanistic trends in Russian medical training as well as examine how Russian authors and cultural figures some physician writers some without professional background in medicine of any kind have positioned healthy and ailing bodies in their creative work This volume s contributors who range from literary scholars educators translators and poets to medical historians librarians museum curators and social workers provide empathetic insight into the experience of medical encounters which all cultures grapple with Their work will prove useful not only to current and future health practitioners but also to a broader audience of readers who are seeking to make compassionate and informed decisions about healthcare for their loved ones and for themselves
