Theatre Of Death:

The Theatre of Death - The Uncanny in Mimesis Mischa Twitchin, 2016-10-20 This book is concerned with such questions as the following What is the life of the past in the present How might the theatre of death and the uncanny in mimesis allow us to conceive of the afterlife of a supposedly ephemeral art practice How might a theatrical iconology engage with such fundamental social relations as those between the living and the dead Distinct from the dominant expectation that actors should appear life like onstage why is it that some theatre artists from Craig to Castellucci have conceived of the actor in the image of the dead Furthermore how might an iconology of the actor allow us to imagine the afterlife of an apparently ephemeral art practice This book explores such questions through the implications of the twofold analogy proposed in its very title as theatre is to the uncanny so death is to mimesis and as theatre is to mimesis so death is to the uncanny Walter Benjamin once observed that The point at issue in the theatre today can be more accurately defined in relation to the stage than to the play It concerns the filling in of the orchestra pit The abyss which separates the actors from the audience like the dead from the living If the relation between the living and the dead can be thought of in terms of an analogy with ancient theatre how might avant garde theatre be thought of in terms of this same relation today

The Age of Spectacular Death Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2020-09-08 This book explores death in contemporary society or more precisely in the spectacular age by moving beyond classic studies of death that emphasised the importance of the death taboo and death denial to examine how we now do death Unfolding the notion of spectacular death as characteristic of our modern approach to death and dying it considers the new mediation or mediatisation of death and dying the commercialisation of death as a marketable commodity used to sell products advance artistic expression or provoke curiosity the re ritualisation of death and the growth of new ways of finding meaning through commemorating the dead the revolution of palliative care and the specialisation surrounding death particularly in relation to scholarship Presenting a range of case studies that shed light on this new understanding of death in contemporary culture The Age of Spectacular Death will appeal to scholars of sociology cultural and media studies psychology and anthropology with interests in death and dying

Mystery in its Passions: Literary Explorations Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2004-04-30 Through mystery literature reveals to us the Great Unknown While we are absorbed by the matters at hand with the present enactment of our life groping for clues to handle them it is through literature that we discover the hidden strings underlying their networks Hence our fascination with literature But there is more The creative act of the human being its proper focus holds the key to the Sesam of life to the great metaphysical onto-poietic questions which literature may disclose First it leads us to the subliminal grounds of transformation in the human soul source of the specifically human significance of life Analecta Husserliana Volume III XIX XXIII XXVII Second it leads us to the unveiling of the hidden workings of life in the twilight of knowing in a dialectic between The Visible and the Invisible Volume LXXV 2002 Analecta Husserliana down to the onto-poietic truth Volume LXXVI 2002 Analecta

Husserliana This prying into the unknown which provokes the human being as he or she attempts to conquer step by step a space of existence finds its culmination in the phenomenon of mystery as the subject of the present collection Its formulation brings us to the greatest question of all the enigmatic solidarity in distinctiveness of human cognition and existence Papers are written by Tony E Afejuku Gary Backhaus Paul G Beidler Matthew J Duffy Raffaella Giovagnoli Jennifer Anna Gosetti Ferencei Matti Itkonen Lawrence Kimmel Catherine Malloy Vladimir L Marchenkov Nancy Mardas Howard Pearce Bernadette Prochaska Victor Gerald Rivas M J Sahlani Dennis Skocz Jadwiga S Smith Mara Stafecka Max Statkiewicz Mariola Sulkowska Anna Teresa Tymieniecka Leon U Weinman Tim Weiss Cluttered Universes of Samuel Beckett and Tadeusz Kantor Michał Kisiel, 2025-08-08 Cluttered Universes of Samuel Beckett and Tadeusz Kantor is a collection of four essays bringing Kantor's and Beckett's texts theatres and theories into conversation with deconstruction new materialism environmental humanities and posthumanism This book is dedicated to two artists rarely discussed together to see how their awareness of poetics and performativity of matter might help us understand our connection to the material world even if the world is falling apart Jane Bennett Karen Barad Rosi Braidotti Donna Haraway Timothy Morton and others pave the way for new critical interpretations of canonical works which are recognised as universes cluttered with matter objects things and other nonhuman visitors of seemingly exclusive human domains Kisiel shows that Beckett's and Kantor's carefulness and care for imagining nonhuman human relationships might refresh our understanding of memory togetherness death or even the end of the world for the Anthropocene
