

Defining Theocratic States

- States whose legitimacy is derived from supernatural sources: God or gods
- Mexica (Aztecs): Legitimacy was derived from a fear that the sun would die out
- Human sacrifice necessary to prevent the loss of the sun
- Tibet: the belief in samsara—birth, death, and rebirth
- Karma: the driving force based on one's deeds—good or evil—in past lives.

Theocratic Imperialism:

The Foundations of Imperialist Policy Mikhail Pavlovich, 1922

The Bible and Colonialism Michael Prior, 1997-05-01

The biblical claim of the divine promise of land is integrally linked with a divine mandate to exterminate the indigenous people. The narrative has supported virtually all Western colonizing enterprises e.g. in Latin America, South Africa, Palestine, resulting in the suffering of millions of people and loss of respect for the Bible. According to modern secular standards of human and political rights, what the biblical narrative calls for are war crimes and crimes against humanity. In this provocative and compelling study, Prior protests at the neglect of the moral question in conventional biblical studies and attempts to rescue the Bible from being a blunt instrument in the oppression of people.

Modernization of the Empire.

Social and cultural aspects of modernization processes in Russia,

Political Demonology Richard Faber, 2018-01-05

The structural core problem of the Gnostic dualism between the god of creation and the god of redemption governs not only every religion of salvation and redemption. It is immanently given in every world in need of change and renewal inescapably and ineradicably. The lord of a world in need of change that is a misconceived world and the liberator, the creator of a transformed new world, cannot be good friends. They are so to speak enemies by definition. Whether Theodor W. Adorno and Walter Benjamin or Erich Auerbach and Hans Blumenberg, Ernst Bloch and Jacob Taubes or Carl Schmitt, cited above, all of them have been more or less fascinated or awed by the dualistic theology of St. Paul's disciple Marcion and have as prominently and as differently referred to him. Already Adolf von Harnack, author of the Marcion monograph that even today sets the standard, was aware of the timeliness of his research object in view of a modern Marcionism right after the First World War.

Christocracy Joseph

Alexander, 2018-11-05. So long the body of Christ has struggled between two opinions concerning the kingdom of God which Christ the King established on the earth upon His resurrection. Is the kingdom for now or later? Is the kingdom in us to be manifested on the earth while Christ is in heaven or we wait? From the Day of Pentecost in the first century of the Christian Era to our present day, we have refused to recognize that Christ as the King of kings established His kingdom and that His believers, those who love Him and followed Him, were to manifest the kingdom on earth. Christocracy is a revelation that captures the essence of the King's glory through His followers. Our teachers never taught us dominion and governance as Christ intended and commanded. They told us to endure and survive until He returns. This book is not presenting a revelation that was not firstly revealed by Christ the King, but it is making known in the twenty-first century the revelation of Christ in a way that demands the Redeemed Christocrat to rise and to govern the world for the glory of the King. The world has starved for so long and it is now demanding the manifestation of the sons of God in governance. Christocracy is the governance of the earth by Christ's legal and authentic representatives to wipe away the tears of billions and fulfill God's desire for those who have waited and continue to wait. You have never read a book like this one before, so buckle up and be blessed by the revelation After you finish reading you must act accordingly Christian Ethics and Modern Problems
