A Long Retreat Andrew Krivak, 2015-05-12 This gorgeously written memoir A Long Retreat tells the story of one man's search for his religious calling a search that led him to the Dominican Republic and Central Europe to Moscow and the South Bronx and finally into married life with a woman whose search for God coincided with his own In 1990 Andrew Krivak poet yacht rigger ocean lifeguard student of the classics entered the Society of Jesus The heart of Jesuit training is the Long Retreat thirty days of silence and prayer in which the Jesuit novice reflects on the Gospels and tests his desire for the priesthood For Krivak eight years of Jesuit formation turned out to be a long retreat in its own right as he tested all his desires for poetry for travel for independence for love against the pledge to do all for the greater glory of God And in this deeply affecting book the long retreat becomes a pattern for our own spiritual lives enabling us to embrace our desire for solitude and perspective in our own circumstances the way Krivak has in his new life as a husband father and writer The search for God is finally the search for oneself St Augustine wrote Krivak s story pushes past the awful stories of scandal in the Catholic Church to reveal why a modern forward looking man would yearn to be a priest Unlike those stories it has an happy ending one in which we can recognize ourselves

Making Space for the Spirit Jennifer Kerr Graves,2016-03-08 How do we create places and spaces for deepening our spiritual lives For slowing down so we can notice what really matters to us For taking time to attend to our own healing and growth For meeting Jesus in life transforming ways And how do we keep these places affordable so that they are accessible to everyone who is seeking not just those who can afford the high cost How do we create these spaces and how do we sustain them These are the questions this book seeks to address as it considers closely and personally the creation and development of one such space So join me as we listen in on some special stories hearing how one community held realized and sustained their vision to make space for the Spirit inspiring us to do the same
