Theology Of Reconciliation:

The Theology of Reconciliation Colin E. Gunton, 2003-05-01 This collection of essays edited by Colin Gunton provides a broad treatment of the theological doctrine of reconciliation The latest addition to the King's College Systematic Theology Series The papers are designed to constitute a broad treatment of the subject including contributions on scripture ethics and the church as well as a bearing of other theological topics Trinity Christology on the central question There is an introduction by the editor who also contributes a closing piece in which the central questions arising in the book are addressed The contributors to this volume include leading theologians from Europe and America Colin Gunton Christoph Schwobel Douglas A Campbell Douglas Farrow Murray Rae John Webster Sue Patterson and Robert W Jensen

Reconciliation and Justification Kenan Osborne, 2001-11-28 Reconciliation and Justification offers a thorough historical and theological background on reconciliation and justification It is an excellent textbook for theology a good stimulus for discussion and a significant contribution to all theological libraries Since Vatican II the sacrament of reconciliation has met with both successes and difficulties Author Kenan B Osborne O F M contends that one of the main reasons for difficulty with the renewal of this sacrament is that it lacks the integration of justification theology He outlines key issues on justification within the biblical theology of St Paul and traces the historical theological and liturgical developments from the first century to the present Thus Fr Osborne enriches our conception of reconciliation through these reflective christological and ecclesiological dimensions

Theology in Reconciliation Thomas Forsyth Torrance, 2017 Dealing with the issue of church unity and the ecumenical movement Professor Torrance reminds Christians in a collection of essays that any theology which is faithful to the gospel must be a theology of reconciliation

Theology in Reconciliation Thomas F. Torrance, 1996-12-19 Dealing with the issue of church unity and the ecumenical movement Professor Torrance reminds Christians in a collection of essays that any theology which is faithful to the gospel must be a theology of reconciliation

The Christian Doctrine of Reconciliation James Denney, 1918

The Social Significance of Reconciliation in Paul's Theology Corneliu Constantineanu, 2010-04-08 This is an assessment of the social dimension to reconciliation as displayed in Paul's Letter to the Romans Traditional exegetical scholarship has treated Paul's presentation of reconciliation as referring to reconciliation between people and God and has primarily focused use of the word katallage traditionally translated as atonement Constantineanu challenges this view and argues that Paul's understanding of the concept is more complex employing rich symbolism to describe reconciliation with God and between human beings forming together an inseparable reality The discussion is placed within Paul's overall religious social and political contexts showing that an analysis of the social dimension of reconciliation in his thought is both plausible and necessary Constantineanu offers an analysis of two major sections of Romans chapters 5-8 and 12-15 Special emphasis is placed on Paul's use of the story of Jesus for community formation for the shaping of identity values and community practices It is thus demonstrated that for Paul God's reconciling initiative shown in the crucifixion is not only the pronouncement of God's reconciling the world but also the ground and model for reconciliation among human beings. It was formerly the Journal for the Study of the New Testament Supplement, a book series that explores the many aspects of New Testament study including historical perspectives, social scientific and literary theory, and theological, cultural, and contextual approaches.

Theology of Reconciliation in the Context of Church Relations Rula Khoury Mansour, 2020-01-31. Christians are called to be peacemakers in a world rife with conflict, but how should Christians respond when the source of strife is not outside the church but within it? Built on an in-depth analysis of three Palestinian church splits, this text examines the cultural and theological implications of intra-church conflict in Arab evangelical communities in Israel. Translating Miroslav Volf's formative theology of reconciliation into her contemporary Palestinian context, Dr. Rula Khoury Mansour provides a critical evaluation of both Volf's theory and Palestinian peacemaking models. Through her research and analysis, Dr. Mansour develops a Middle Eastern theology of reconciliation and encourages congregations around the world to develop greater cultural and theological awareness in their quest to experience lasting peace within their churches and wider communities.

Christ and Reconciliation Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2013-05-26. The first installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time. In Christ and Reconciliation, Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen develops a constructive Christology and theology of salvation in dialogue with the best of Christian tradition with contemporary theology in its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths. Kärkkäinen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World is a five-volume project that aims to develop a new approach to and method of doing Christian theology in our pluralistic world at the beginning of the third millennium. Topics such as diversity, inclusivity, violence, power, cultural hybridity, and justice are part of the constructive theological discussion, along with classical topics such as the messianic consciousness, incarnation, atonement, and the person of Christ. With the metaphor of hospitality serving as the framework for his discussion, Kärkkäinen engages Judaism, Islam, Buddhism, and Hinduism in sympathetic and critical mutual dialogue while remaining robustly Christian in his convictions. Never before has a full-scale doctrinal theology been attempted in such a wide and deep dialogical mode.

Missionary of Reconciliation Alfred Olwa, 2013-11-30. Missionary of Reconciliation: The Role of the Doctrine of Reconciliation in the Preaching of Festo Kivengere of Uganda, 1971-1988. Alfred Olwa, Sydney, Australia. In the period 1971-1988, the Christian doctrine of reconciliation was central to Festo Kivengere's preaching in Uganda and beyond. This doctrine so gripped Kivengere that it shaped his attitude to life, to others, and even to his enemies. He exhorted his audiences to be reconciled with God and then with their fellow human beings as part of God's remedy for a broken world. In his preaching, Kivengere depicts Jesus as a missionary of reconciliation who brings a fresh and alternative life characterized by the reconciling love and peace from God. He preached the Christian doctrine of reconciliation into a Uganda where Christians lived under the horrors of Amin's rule and its aftermath. According to Kivengere, the world changes through the preaching of the reconciliation centered in Jesus Christ.

Reconciliation Ralph P. Martin, 1997-04-24.

Martin isolates a single theme of Paul's theology reconciliation and suggests that this one term is sufficiently broad as an umbrella idea to accommodate the leading aspects of Paul's main thinking

The Reconciliation of Theology and Social Work William White, LCSW, 2020-02-17 The Reconciliation of Theology and Social Work seeks to add to the discussion between Christian theology and social work William C White's goal is to offer a practical approach and theoretical framework for service grounded in the spiritual wisdom of God's word As he writes There is an extremely rich background that exists between theology and social work In a time when the winds of change have impacted the faith community White thinks it is best to utilize the resources within the healing community to inform his theory of social work practice White suggests The lack of cultural competence by social workers and Christians can impact vulnerable populations negatively and increase disparities in providing services Such a bold integration of faith and social work practice will find critics among those who wish to keep the two emerging disciplines apart However for those who desire to restore the friendly relations between the faith community and social services The Reconciliation of Theology and Social Work will prove both challenging and yet possible

War, Peace, and Reconciliation Theodore R. Weber, 2015-11-11 War Peace and Reconciliation invites Christians and the churches into a conversation over how to think about war from a standpoint in faith It asks how reconciliation which is central to Christian life and doctrine can engage the realities of war without surrendering its fundamental affirmations It defines these realities politically by discussing the meanings of power peace as a particular organization of power and the international system The study of war and politics is unavoidable as is the engagement with reconciliation because all human existence and activity exist in the context of the gracious work of God to renew and reconcile the fallen creation The inquiry is theocentric and christocentric It culminates in a call to the churches to examine all their practices in the light of this perspective

Explorations in Reconciliation Dr Joseph Liechty, Professor David Tombs, 2013-05-28 Theologians and scholars of religion draw on rich resources to address the complex issues raised by political reconciliation in the Middle East the former Yugoslavia South Africa Northern Ireland and elsewhere The questions addressed include Can truth set a person or a society free How is political forgiveness possible Are political personal and spiritual reconciliation essentially related Explorations in Reconciliation brings Catholic Protestant Mennonite Jewish and Islamic perspectives together within a single volume to present some of the most relevant theological work today

Liberal Quaker Reconciliation Theology: A Constructive Approach Christy Randazzo, 2020-02-17 This work brings the fields of Christian theologies of atonement and reconciliation and Liberal Quaker theology into dialogue and lays the foundation for developing an original Liberal Quaker reconciliation theology This dialogue focuses specifically on the metaphorical language employed to describe the relationship of interdependence between humans and God which both traditions hold as integral to their conceptions of human and divine existence It focuses on these areas the sin of human division and exclusion atonement and reunification of humans and God as a response to sin and the metaphors Liberal Quaker use to describe this interdependent relationship specifically the metaphor of Light This unique approach develops an original model of reconciliatory interdependence between humans and God that is rooted in both Christological and Universalist Liberal Quaker metaphorical and theological categories and utilizes the Liberal Quaker language of God as interdependent Light towards a new theology A Theological Assessment of Reconciliation for Missiology in the Korean Context Hyo Seok Lim author,2020 In the discourse of mission as reconciliation in spite of existing consensus about God as the author of reconciliation and the inseparableness of the dimensions of reconciliation there is a disagreement on the issue of to what extent the vertical dimension of reconciliation should be addressed and sought in pursuing the horizontal dimension of reconciliation After engaging the theologies of four Christian thinkers and practitioners of reconciliation Karl Barth Miroslav Volf Son Yang won and Desmond Tutu this dissertation argues that the vertical and horizontal dimensions of reconciliation are in mutually promoting relationship direct and indirect promotion respectively This study evaluates that the vertical dimension of reconciliation should be reinforced in Robert Schreiter s theology of reconciliation Schreiter notes that the church has traditionally tended to focus on the vertical dimension overlooking its responsibility in the horizontal dimension The indivisible dimensions of reconciliation have mistakenly been separated However as a reflective reaction if the church concentrates on the horizontal reconciliation merely assuming the vertical reconciliation the church runs the risk of making the same mistake conversely The vertical reconciliation should be the foundation on which the horizontal reconciliation is based and should continuously guide all the aspects of the church s work of reconciliation The vertical reconciliation enables horizontal reconciliation Also the alpha and omega of the Christian understanding of reconciliation is the vertical reconciliation between God and humanity Grounding South Korean churches missiology in reconciliation regarding the North Korea mission is an urgently needed job A more wholesome and robust theology of reconciliation should be presented for the missiology in the Korean context The national division between South and North Korea has resulted in the South South conflicts and the issue of North Korean refugees South Korean churches should exert themselves in the ministry of reconciliation concentrating on justice hospitality and renewed spirituality The Christian Doctrine of Justification and Reconciliation Albrecht Ritschl,2004-08-24 The Ritschlian theology a reaction against rationalism was influential in the 19th and early 20th centuries Ritschl held that God could be known only through the revelation contained in the person and work of Jesus His theology stressed ethics and the community of man and repudiated metaphysics Ritschl s most characteristic work is presented here and has been translated as The Christian Doctrine of Justification and Reconciliation In it Ritschl proposes understanding the doctrine of justification in interpersonal rather than juridical categories Reconciliation: Mission and Ministry in a Changing Social Order Robert J. Schreiter,2015-03-11 Boston Theological Institute series v 3 Liberation and Reconciliation James Deotis Roberts,2005-01-01 First released in 1971 Liberation and Reconciliation presents a constructive statement that argues for a balance between the quest for liberation and the need for reconciliation in black white relations Examining biblical and theological themes from the perspectives of black experience the book focuses on enlisting all humans of goodwill black or white in the cause of racial justice Roberts concludes that nonviolent reconciliation is the best response to racial oppression This groundbreaking work now a classic in the field is recognized as one of the first texts to move conversations within black theology beyond what black theologians were against toward what the movement sought to affirm RECONCILIATION : Christian perspectives - interdisciplinary approaches Tobias Faix,Cobus van Wyngaard,Johannes Reimer,2020-01-01 Hardly any other topic is as important for the coexistence of mankind as the question of justice and reconciliation In this volume we want to examine this important question from different interdisciplinary and international perspectives in order to develop an overall understanding that will contribute to reconciliation in various cultural and religious fields of conflict in the world Particular attention will be paid to the theological perspective on reconciliation in which justice and restoration of relationships play a central role Reconciliation and Religion Herbert Henry Farmer,1998 Presents Farmer s personalist encounter theology Includes a lengthy essay introducing the thought of Farmer
