There's A Word For It:

There's a Word for It Sol Steinmetz, 2010-04-27 Word geeks rejoice Crack open these covers and immerse yourself in a mind expanding 1963 compendium of the new words or new meanings of words that have sprung from American life to ignite the most vital inventive fruitful and A OK 1961 lexicographical Big Bang 1950 since the first no brow 1922 Neanderthal grunted meaningfully From the turn of the twentieth century to today our language has grown from around 90 000 new words to some 500 000 at least that's today's best guesstimate 1936 What accounts for this quantum leap 1924 In There's a Word for It language expert Sol Steinmetz takes us on a supercalifragilisticexpialidocious 1949 joyride 1908 through our nation's cultural history as seen through the neato 1951 words and terms we've invented to describe it all From the quaintly genteel days of the 1900s when we first heard words such as nickelodeon escalator and believe it or not Ms through the Roaring Twenties the time of flappers jalopies and bootleg booze to the postwar 50s the years of rock n roll beatniks and blast offs and into the new millennium with its blogs Google and Obamamania this feast for word lovers is a boffo 1934 celebration of linguistic esoterica 1929 In chapters organized by decade each with a lively and informative narrative of the life and language of the time along with year by year lists of words that were making their first appearance There's a Word for It reveals how the American culture contributed to the evolution and expansion of the English language and vice versa Clearly it's must reading 1940 And not to disparage any of the umpteen 1918 other language books on the shelf though they have their share of hokum 1917 and gobbledygook 1944 but this one truly is the bee's knees and the cat's pajamas 1920s There's Life in the Word Hilda Marie Barton, 2011-05-04 In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God John 1 1 You will see that God Jesus and the Holy Spirit are One And there are three that bear record in Heaven the Father the Word and the Holy Ghost and these three are One I John 5 7 You can never separate these three for they will always be One When you come to the Lord Jesus Christ and accept Him as your Savior and you repent of your sins He forgives you and then you become one of His children You are now an heir to the Kingdom of Heaven and you can have abundant life here and then have eternal life with Jesus and all the saints of God He will never leave or forsake you for He said He would be with you always The Word tells us that the River of life flows freely and you shall live and not die It's not God's will that any perish but all to have everlasting life He has told us that we can have life and have it more abundantly through Jesus Christ Study the Word of God and you can be assured and know that there's life in the Word
