Theres Always Been Womens:

Women's Legal Landmarks in the Interwar Years Rosemary Auchmuty, Erika Rackley, Mari Takayanagi, 2024-08-22

Women's Legal Landmarks in the Interwar Years shines new light on 33 legal landmarks many forgotten today that affected women in England and Wales between 1918 and 1939. It considers the work of feminist activists to bring about legal change which benefited or aimed to benefit women. Areas explored include property inheritance, adoption, marriage, access to health care, criminal law, employment opportunities, pay, pensions, and political representation. It also examines campaigns by key women's organisations and assesses the impact of early women lawyers and politicians. While some of the landmarks effected change during this period, others provided the foundation for measures in later decades. Together the landmarks demonstrate that far from being a relatively quiet period of British feminism, the interwar period played a key role in ongoing fights for recognition, representation, and justice.

She's a Badass Katherine Yeske Taylor, 2024-01-16. Feminism has always been a complex and controversial topic, as female rock musicians know especially well. When they've stayed true to their own vision, these artists have alternately been adored as role models or denounced as bad influences. Either way, they're asked to cope with certain pressures that their male counterparts haven't faced. With each successive feminism movement since the 1960s, women in rock have been prominent proponents of progress as they've increasingly taken control of their own music message and image. This, in its way, is just as revolutionary as any protest demonstration. In She's a Badass, music journalist Katherine Yeske Taylor interviews twenty significant women in rock, devoting an entire chapter to each one, taking an in-depth look at the incredible talent, determination, and often humor they needed to succeed in their careers and life.

Interviewees range from legendary artists through notable up-and-comers, including Ann Wilson, Heart, Gina Schock, The Go-Go's, Suzanne Vega, Amy Ray, Indigo Girls, Orianthi, Amanda Palmer, and more. Their experiences reveal the varied and unique challenges these women have faced, how they overcame them, and what they think still needs to be done to continue making progress on the equality front. Their stories prove that promoting feminism, either through activism or by living example, is undeniably badass. The women interviewed for the 20 chapters are Suzi Quatro, Ann Wilson, Heart, Exene Cervenka, Gina Schock, the Go-Go's, Lydia Lunch, Suzanne Vega, Cherie Currie, the Runaways, Joan Osborne, Donita Sparks, L7, Amy Ray, Indigo Girls, Tanya Donnelly, Throwing Muses, the Breeders, Belly, Paula Cole, Tobi Vail, Bikini Kill, Laura Veirs, Catherine Popper, Amanda Palmer, Bonnie Bloomgarden, Death Valley Girls, Orianthi, Fefe Dobson, and Sade Sanchez, L.A. Witch.

Performing Farmscapes Susan C. Haedicke, 2021-12-06. This book argues that the performance-based work in the featured case studies contributes to the construction of food democracy, where the public takes back decision-making in shaping the food system. It explores how contemporary artists translate scientific research about local and global agricultural issues into life stories that inform and engage their audiences and, in so doing, transform passive food consumers into proactive food citizens. The pairing of performing and farmscapes, complex webs of farmlands and storylines, enables artists to use embodied practices to encourage audiences to imagine a just and sustainable agri food system and to collaborate on making it a reality The book arranges the case studies on a trajectory that moves from projects that foreground knowledge acquisition to ones that emphasize social engagement by creating conversations and coalitions between farming and nonfarming communities to a final one that pairs protest art and political activism to achieve legally binding changes in the agricultural landscape
