Space, Time and Number in the Brain Stanislas Dehaene, Elizabeth Brannon, 2011-07-13 The study of mathematical cognition and the ways in which the ideas of space time and number are encoded in brain circuitry has become a fundamental issue for neuroscience How such encoding differs across cultures and educational level is of further interest in education and neuropsychology This rapidly expanding field of research is overdue for an interdisciplinary volume such as this which deals with the neurological and psychological foundations of human numeric capacity A uniquely integrative work this volume provides a much needed compilation of primary source material to researchers from basic neuroscience psychology developmental science neuroimaging neuropsychology and theoretical biology The first comprehensive and authoritative volume dealing with neurological and psychological foundations of mathematical cognition Uniquely integrative volume at the frontier of a rapidly expanding interdisciplinary field Features outstanding and truly international scholarship with chapters written by leading experts in a variety of fields

The Wellbeing of Nations Paul Allin, David J. Hand, 2014-10-06 What is national wellbeing and what is progress Why measure these definitions Why are measures beyond economic performance needed and how will they be used How do we measure national wellbeing turn the definitions into observable quantities Where are we now and where to next These questions are asked and answered in this much needed timely book The Wellbeing of Nations provides an accessible and comprehensive overview of the measurement of national well being examining whether national wellbeing is more than the sum of the wellbeing of everyone in the country and identifying and reviewing requirements for new measures It begins with definitions describes how to operationalize those definitions and takes a critical look at the uses to which such measures are to be put The authors examine initiatives from around the world using the UK measuring national wellbeing programme as a case study throughout the book along with case studies drawn from other countries as well as discussion of the position in some countries not yet drawn into the national wellbeing scene
