Through Love's Eyes C.A. Popovich, 2020-03-10 In an instant Brittany Yardin's view in the mirror changed forever. A tragic accident as a preteen left permanent physical scars but teasing by the mean girl clique left deeper emotional ones. Years later Brittany has made a life for herself on a tiny remote island and the last person she expects to run into is high school mean girl and secret crush Amy Jansons. Amy aka Erika James longs to be more than just a pretty face. As a top fashion model her beauty is the benchmark most women long to attain. She travels the world and wears the latest designer clothes but as her fortieth birthday approaches so does the end of her career and she's determined to keep her place at the top. When Amy needs help during a shoot Brittany puts the past aside and friendship blooms. But so does the attraction neither of them can deny and life on a remote island is no place for a serious model trying to save her career.
