Tibetan Mandala Coloring David Stewart,2015-05-02 Mandalas are works of sacred art in Tantric Tibetan Buddhism The word mandala comes from a Sanskrit word that generally means circle and mandalas are indeed primarily recognizable by their concentric circles and other geometric figures Mandalas are far more than geometical figures however For Tantric Buddhists they are rich with symbolism and sacred meaning In fact the etymology of the word mandala suggests not just a circle but a container of essence Simply stated a mandala is a sacred geometric figure that represents the universe When completed a mandala becomes a sacred area that serves as a receptacle for deities and a collection point of universal forces By mentally entering a mandala and proceeding to its center a person is symbolically guided through the cosmos to the essence of reality By constructing a mandala a monk ritually participates in the Buddha s teachings In Tibetan Buddhism contemplation of sacred images is central to religious ritual and a mandala is one of the most important of these sacred images A Tibetan mandala is usually made with careful placement of colored sand and accordingly is known in Tibetan as dul tson kyil khor or mandala of colored powders In China Japan and Tibet mandalas can also be made in bronze or stone three dimensional figures In recent years a variety of mandalas have been created using computer graphics although these are usually created by non Buddhists and are not considered sacred Tibetan Mandala Oyuna Sukebatar,2020-01-21 What if you could combine the relaxing practice of coloring book with the spirituality that surrounds Mandalas Let s delve into those two topics A Mandala is a spiritual or ritual geometric configuration of symbols or a map in many oriental cultures as Hinduism Buddhism and Shintoism In modern typically American use Mandala has become a generic term for any diagram chart or geometric pattern that represents the cosmos metaphysically or symbolically and a model of the structure of life itself Instead coloring books are collections of black and white drawings to fill with colors at first created for children to develop imagination and creativity In recent times coloring books became popular also between adults because of relaxing and de stress benefits Combining Mandalas with coloring book create a perfect union of spirituality and stress relieving that will be extremely effective even just in a few minutes a day These anti stress coloring book are art therapy for your soul A mandala coloring book can help you escape electronic devices and provide hours of relaxation If you are looking for this perfect union Tibetan Mandala by Oyuna Sukebatar is the book for you Thanks to Oyuna Sukebatar you will discover
