of the battle Yet the German view of the battle has been largely ignored After the war U S Army Intelligence officers gathered German commanders post war reports of the battle Due in part to poor translations done after the war these important documents have been overlooked by World War II historians Steven H Newton has collected translated and edited these accounts including reports made by the Chiefs of Staff of Army Group South and the Fourth Panzer Army and by the Army Group Center Operations Officer As a result a new and unprecedented picture of German strategy and operations is made available The translated staff reports are supplemented by Newton s commentary and original research which challenges a number of widely accepted ideas about this pivotal battle
