Time After Time Along The River:

Time After Time Lisa Grunwald, 2020-06-09 A magical love story inspired by the legend of a woman who vanished from Grand Central Terminal sweeps readers from the 1920s to World War II and beyond Readers who enjoyed Audrey Niffenegger's The Time Traveler's Wife will be enchanted Publishers Weekly I utterly loved this clever charming hopeful tale of true love against all odds Ariel Lawhon New York Times bestselling author of I Was Anastasia On a clear December morning in 1937 at the famous gold clock in Grand Central Terminal Joe Reynolds a hardworking railroad man from Queens meets a vibrant young woman who seems mysteriously out of place Nora Lansing is a Manhattan socialite and an aspiring artist whose flapper clothing pearl earrings and talk of the Roaring Twenties don't seem to match the bleak mood of Depression era New York Captivated by Nora from her first electric touch Joe despairs when he tries to walk her home and she disappears Finding her again and again will become the focus of his love and his life As thousands of visitors pass under the famous celestial blue ceiling each day Joe and Nora create a life of infinite love in a finite space taking full advantage of the Terminal City within a city But when the construction of another landmark threatens their future Nora and Joe are forced to test the limits of their freedom and their love Praise for Time After Time I'll never again set foot in Grand Central Terminal without looking over my shoulder for Nora and Joe or marveling at the station itself a backdrop as intriguing as the love story that unfolds beneath its star studded ceiling Georgia Hunter New York Times bestselling author of We Were the Lucky Ones In lively prose set against the fascinating history of Grand Central Grunwald asks a compelling question How long would we stay in one place for love Time The spectacular Lisa Grunwald has written a classic story of fate true love art and chance with truth and beauty You will want to share it with every reader you know Adriana Trigiani New York Times bestselling author of Tony's Wife

Georges River Blues Heather Goodall, 2022-02-02 The lower Georges River on Dharawal and Dharug lands was a place of fishing grounds swimming holes and picnics in the early twentieth century But this all changed after World War II when rapidly expanding industry and increasing population fell heaviest on this river polluting its waters and destroying its bush Local people campaigned to defend their river They battled municipal councils who were themselves struggling against an explosion of garbage as population and economy changed In these blues an Australian term for conflict it was mangroves and swamps that became the focus of the fight Mangroves were expanding because of increasing pollution and early climate change Councils wanted to solve their garbage problems by bulldozing mangroves and bushland dumping garbage and eventually building playing fields So they attacked mangroves as useless swamps that harboured disease Residents defended mangroves by mobilising ecological science to show that these plants nurtured immature fish and protected the river's health These suburban resident action campaigns have been ignored by histories of the Australian environmental movement which have instead focused on campaigns to save distant wilderness or inner city built environments The Georges River environmental conflicts may have been less theatrical but they were fought out just as bitterly And local Georges River campaigners men women and often children were just as tenacious They struggled to keep bushland in our suburbs laying the foundation for today s widespread urban environmental consciousness Cover Ruth Staples was a courageous Georges River campaigner who lived all her life around Lime Kiln Bay at Oatley West She kept on fighting to regenerate the river until her death aged 90 in 2020

A Time to Kill, a Time to Heal Roger Helle,2019-01-04 Ron entered the long hospital corridor looking for his brother Roger After searching the ward unsuccessfully he approached a doctor standing by the bed of a patient I m Sergeant Helle s brother he said How is he The doctor looked at Ron and said I m sorry son but your brother is going to die There s nothing else we can do Just a few beds away drifting in and out of consciousness Roger heard the doctor s death sentence Not yet twenty three years old he felt fear grip his heart in a way he had not even experienced on the battlefield That fear caused him to do something he had never done before Roger silently prayed God if there is a God if you let me live I ll do anything you want Then he slipped mercifully back into a drug induced sleep That prayer would be answered in a way Roger could never have imagined but only after years of nightmares alcohol and tortured emotional battles Peace did come at last as Roger not only made peace with Vietnam but the emotional pain of his past as well Roger and Shirley Helle live in Chattanooga Tennessee They retired from Teen Challenge in 2017 after 40 years of ministry The Helle s continue to travel across the country speaking and ministering
