Causes that Led to the War Between the States Jacob Owen McGehee, 1915 A Southern View of the Invasion of the Southern States and War of 1861-65 Samuel A'Court Ashe, Originally there was no connection between the settlements along the coast In 1776 they held a meeting and declared their separation from England and asserted that each State was a free independent and sovereign State and by a treaty of peace that was admitted by England In 1781 the States entered into a confederacy and again declared the independence and sovereignty of each State In 1788 a union was proposed to go into effect between any nine States that ratified the Constitution Eleven States ratified the Constitution and it went into operation between them George Washington was elected President of the eleven States In ratifying that Constitution Virginia and New York particularly affirmed that the people of any State had a right to withdraw from the Union and there was general assent to that claim and it was taught in the text book at West Point There arose at various times differences between the Southern States and the Northern States but all these were peaceably settled except as to African slavery For some cause South Carolina seceded in December 1860 and presently was joined by six other Southern States Neither Congress nor the President took any action against these States But at length Congress passed a measure proposing that the States should amend the Constitution and prohibit Congress from interfering with Negro slavery in any State with the expectation that such an amendment would lead the seceded States to return Presently the new President was led to deny the right of a State to withdraw from the Union and he started a war against the seceded States and called on the other States to furnish troops for his war When North Carolina and Virginia and other Southern States were called on to furnish troops to fight the seceded States North Carolina said You can get no soldiers from this State to fight your unholy war and North Carolina withdrew from the Union and so did Virginia and two other States Then the Supreme Court in a case before it declared that under the Constitution the President had no right to make war and the Constitution did not give Congress the right to make war on any State So it mentioned the war as one between the Northern and Southern States and said the right of the matter in dispute was to be determined by the wager of battle thus ignoring the light and justice of the claim in dispute And so the Northern States conquered those that had seceded This book contains the following chapters 1 The Slave Trade 2 Steps Leading to War 3 Nullification North and South 4 The States Made the Union 5 Nullification North and South 6 Ratification of the Constitution by Virginia New York and Rhode Island 7 Secession Insurrection of the Negroes and Northern Incendiarism 8 The Modern Case of John Brown 9 Why South Carolina Seceded 10 Secession of the Cotton States 11 President Lincoln s Inaugural 12 Lincoln and the Constitution 13 Lincoln the Lawyer 14 Lincoln s Inhumanity 15 Lincoln the Usurper 16 Abraham Lincoln the Citizen 17 Lincoln the Strategist 18 Conditions Just After the War 19 The War Between the Northern States and the Southern States 20 Speech of Jefferson Davis at Mississippi City Mississippi in 1881 crucial role of war in the formation of state systems It starts from the assumption that interstate rivalries and conflicts were at the heart not only of the demarcation of territories but also of the ever growing need to mobilize resources for warfare Institutionalization was consequently highly dependent on such competition It was for military reasons and with military aims that the state secured control of time and space both at sea and on land The Origins of the Modern State in Europe series arises from an important international research programme sponsored by the European Science Foundation The aim of the series which comprises seven volumes is to bring together specialists from different countries who reinterpret from a comparative European perspective different aspects of the formation of the state over the long period from the beginning of the thirteenth to the end of the eighteenth century One of the main achievements of the research programme has been to overcome the long established historiographical tendency to regard states mainly from the viewpoint of their twentieth century borders
