The War for the World Israel Zangwill,1917      The War of the Worlds Herbert George Wells,1898 H G Wells s hugely influential book tracks the exploits of a writer who struggles to survive an alien invasion of Victorian England After seeing the monstrous Martians firsthand the narrator attempts to evade their destructive mechanized vehicles and must stay on the run to avoid detection As he meets other desperate humans he becomes increasingly pessimistic about any chance of survival The novel stands as a major milestone in science fiction literature inspiring legions of subsequent writers and an endless array of hostile alien scenarios      Jefferson County in the World War ,1920      Collective Security in the Post-Cold War World United States. Loomis,2010 Wars are started by a person or persons and are usually a quest for power for a person or a group of people and they don t really care how many people are killed nor how many families are losing a father mother or brothers or whole families and their relatives Sometimes it is necessary to start a war by a peaceful nation against countries tat are harming and have the publically displayed their intentions to extend their borders by taking land from established country s land and people This I would consider declaring a war to be the only necessary solution to the problem but still a war with people getting maimed and killed In World War One Germany was the problem once again lust for power I wasn t even thought of at that period of time in fact I hadn t even arrived on the scene at that point of time But think about it for a moment there s not one inch of land that has increased in size in those thousands of years of civilization and wars I was a training in Camp Blanding in Florida we
