Are we losing a war few of us realize we're fighting Jim Sciutto CNN's Chief National Security Correspondent reveals the invisible fronts that make up 21st century warfare from disinformation campaigns to advanced satellite weapons Poisoned dissidents Election interference Armed invasions International treaties thrown into chaos Secret military buildups Hackers and viruses Weapons deployed in space China and Russia and Iran and North Korea spark news stories by carrying out bold acts of aggression and violating international laws and norms Isn't this just bad actors acting badly That kind of thinking is outdated and dangerous Emboldened by their successes these countries are in fact waging a brazen global war on the US and the West This is a new Cold War which will not be won by those who fail to realize they are fighting it The enemies of the West understand that while they are unlikely to win a shooting war they have another path to victory And what we see as our greatest strengths open societies military innovation dominance of technology on Earth and in space longstanding leadership in global institutions these countries are undermining or turning into weaknesses In The Shadow War CNN anchor and chief national security correspondent Jim Sciutto provides us with a revealing and at times disturbing guide to this new international conflict This Shadow War is already the greatest threat to America's national security even though most Americans know little or nothing about it With on-the-ground reporting from Ukraine to the South China Sea from a sub under the Arctic to unprecedented access to America's Space Command Sciutto draws on his deep knowledge high-level contacts and personal experience as a journalist and diplomat to paint the most comprehensive and vivid picture of a nation targeted by a new and disturbing brand of warfare Thankfully America is adapting and fighting back In The Shadow War Sciutto introduces readers to the dizzying array of soldiers sailors submariners and their commanders space engineers computer scientists civilians and senior intelligence officials who are on the front lines of this new kind of forever war Intensive and disturbing this invaluable and important work opens our eyes and makes clear that the war of the future is already here

War and Shadows Mai Lan Gustafsson, 2010-12-15 Vietnamese culture and religious traditions place the utmost importance on dying well in old age body unblemished with surviving children and properly buried and mourned More than five million people were killed in the Vietnam War many of them young many of them dying far from home Another 300,000 are still missing Having died badly they are thought to have become angry ghosts doomed to spend eternity in a kind of spirit hell Decades after the war ended many survivors believe that the spirits of those dead and missing have returned to haunt their loved ones In War and Shadows the anthropologist Mai Lan Gustafsson tells the story of the anger of these spirits and the torments of their kin Gustafsson's rich ethnographic research allows her to bring readers into the world of spirit possession focusing on the source of the pain the physical and mental anguish the spirits bring and various attempts to ameliorate their anger through ritual offerings and the intervention of mediums Through a series of personal life histories she chronicles the variety of ailments brought about by the spirits wrath from headaches and aching limbs often the same limb lost by a loved one in battle to self mutilation In Gustafsson s view the Communist suppression of spirit based religion after the fall of Saigon has intensified anxieties about the well being of the spirit world While shrines and mourning are still allowed spirit mediums were outlawed and driven underground along with many of the other practices that might have provided some comfort Despite these restrictions she finds victims of these hauntings do as much as possible to try to lay their ghosts to rest War in the Shadows ,1987 U.S. Army Special Warfare Alfred H.
