Knowledge and Christian Belief Alvin Plantinga, 2015-04-13 In his widely praised Warranted Christian Belief Oxford 2000 Alvin Plantinga discussed in great depth the question of the rationality or sensibility of Christian belief In this book Plantinga presents the same ideas in a briefer much more accessible fashion Recognized worldwide as a leading Christian philosopher Plantinga probes what exactly is meant by the claim that religious and specifically Christian belief is irrational and cannot sensibly be held He argues that the criticisms of such well known atheists as Richard Dawkins Daniel Dennett Sam Harris and Christopher Hitchens are completely wrong Finally Plantinga addresses several potential defeaters to Christian belief pluralism science evil and suffering and shows how they fail to successfully defeat rational Christian belief Plantinga and Warranted Christian Belief Erik Daniel Baldwin,2000

Transcendental Arguments and Justified Christian Belief Ronney Mourad,2005-02-08 Transcendental Arguments and Justified Christian Belief offers an extended discussion of the characteristics of transcendental arguments and the philosophical objections that have been leveled against them Author Ronney Mourad provides a comprehensive review of the recent philosophical literature concerning the definition and possibility of transcendental arguments and defends original positions on these issues One function of transcendental arguments is to identify beliefs or propositions implied by any possible act of assertion Anyone who denies the conclusions of a sound transcendental argument defined in this way simultaneously implies the truth of those conclusions by asserting the denial Therefore a sound transcendental argument produces conclusions that are distinctively universal and resistant to criticism This book also applies transcendental argumentation to epistemological questions in Christian theology Can Christians justify their religious beliefs Do they even need to try The work of Karl Otto Apel and Franklin Gamwell serves as the starting point for the development of a transcendently grounded conception of epistemic justification The final chapters argue in conversation with Schubert Ogden and Alvin Plantinga that the obligations of epistemic justification revealed by transcendental arguments bear several implications for theological method Book Symposium on Alvin Plantinga's Warranted Christian Belief ,2001
