Warship 2003 2004:

Warship 2003-2004 Antony Preston, 2004 This title is the 26th volume containing the usual diverse range of major feature articles devoted to the design development and service of the world's fighting ships Jane's Fighting Ships 2010-2011 Stephen Saunders, 2010-06-17 Jane's Fighting Ships is your essential reference to the world's navies Country by country you will find authoritative commentaries for each ship complete with comprehensive details of displacement and dimensions main machinery speed and range weapons systems construction and modernisation programmes latest operational status and strength of fleet including sales to other navies French Warships in the Age of Steam 1859-1914 Stephen S. Roberts, 2021-10-31 This outstanding book will be essential for future studies of naval policy in the period between la Gloire and the Great War The Naval Review This book is the first comprehensive listing in English of more than 1400 warships that were added to the official French navy fleet list between 1 January 1859 and World War I It includes everything from the largest battleships to a small armoured gunboat that looked like a floating egg Reflecting the main phases of naval policy the ships are listed in three separate parts to keep contemporary designs together and then by ship type and class For each class the book provides a design history explaining why the ships were built substantial technical characteristics for the ships as completed and after major reconstructions and selected career milestones including the ultimate fate of each ship Following the earlier volumes written jointly with Rif Winfield French Warships in the Age of Sail 1626 1786 and French Warships in the Age of Sail 1786 1861 this trilogy now provides a complete picture of the development of French warships over a period of almost three centuries As a technical reference on the French ships of 1859 to 1914 this book is a must for the serious naval architecture student modeler or enthusiast So much solid information is packed in this book arranged logically clearly and with so many illustrations I cannot see where another volume on this subject can compete Highly recommended Nautical Research Journal Superlatives abound in describing this book arguably the finest naval shiplist ever created Warship International Jane's Fighting Ships, 2003-2004, 2003 Places of Refuge for Ships Aldo E. Chircop, Olof Lindén, 2006 Written by scholars and practitioners this work consists of 20 multidisciplinary chapters addressing the law policy and management aspects of the problem of places of refuge for ships in need of assistance Specific chapters focus on the experiences and approaches of Australia Belgium Canada Denmark Germany United Kingdom and United States

Canadian Pacific Ships Ian Collard, 2022-05-12 In 1873 a company was formed to construct the first railway across Canada It soon branched out into shipping chartering ships from the Cunard Line for service between Vancouver Yokohama Shanghai and Hong Kong In 1889 Canadian Pacific would be awarded the mail contract for the service across the Pacific and by 1903 they would purchase Elder Dempster Company and begin sailing from Liverpool to Quebec and Montreal They obtained control of the Atlantic rail and Pacific routes and later interest in the Canadian Australasian Line becoming the world's greatest transportation system bridging two oceans and linking four continents Canada's largest operator of Atlantic and Pacific steamships until after the Second World War CP Ships boasted such names as Empress of Britain Empress of Ireland and Empress of Canada This new history of the shipping side of Canadian Pacific includes a wealth of illustrations and a detailed fleet list that will enthral maritime enthusiasts

Indigenous Construction of Indian Naval Warships ,2011 Sea Breezes ,2007 Shipping Statistics and Market Review ,2010-05 Marine News ,2004 The Stationery Office Annual Catalogue Stationery Office (Great Britain),2005 British Warship Losses in the Ironclad Era 1860-1919 David Hepper,2006 A chronological listing of all British naval vessels lost through accident or enemy action from 1860 to the end of the First World War with full descriptions of the circumstances A sequel to David Hepper s highly valuable British Warship Losses in the Age of Sail which is now the standard reference on the subject this volume carries the coverage forward from the first ironclad to the end of the First World War All losses down to the smallest vessels are included whether caused by accident stress of weather or enemy action and full details of the circumstances are given based on courts of enquiry senior officers reports and other primary source material Many incidents in this volume have never previously been studied in any depth including scores of sinkings during the First World War so the book represents a real and substantial contribution to the subject But it is more than a bald recitation of facts with highly readable entries containing fascinating and little known details There is also a representative selection of photographs showing the variety of fates suffered by warships in this era The organization is basically chronological but there are full indexes by ship name by commanding officer and by ship type making thematic research that much easier In summary the book is an important new source of reference for the naval history of this period
