White Fathers:

The White Fathers Glenn D. Kittler, 1957 Gives a full account of the amazing life and work of Cardinal Lavigerie who forewarned and warned the British and French governments that if the whites exploited the African they would one day be turned out Dust jacket flap The Catholic Encyclopedia, 1913 Ethnicity and the Making of History in Northern Ghana Carola Lentz, 2006-07-04 Drawing on two decades of research this social and political history of North Western Ghana traces the creation of new ethnic and territorial boundaries categories and forms of self understanding and represents a major contribution to debates on ethnicity colonialism and the production of history It explores the creation and redefinition of ethnic distinctions and commonalities by African and European actors showing that ethnicity's power derives from a contradiction while ethnic identities purport to be non negotiable creating permanent bonds stability and security the boundaries of the communities created and the associated traits and practices are malleable and adaptable to specific interests and contexts Pathways to Adulthood for Disconnected Young Men in Low-Income Communities Kevin Roy, Nikki Jones, 2014-03-26 As the chapters in this volume demonstrate young disadvantaged men from urban neighborhoods face a unique set of challenges and constraints as they transition to adulthood Yet these challenges are not always contained by place Research among Latino and White disadvantaged men in nonurban settings highlights the pressures that come along with fatherhood for disadvantaged men In contrast to popular understandings of absent or disengaged fathers findings reveal how fatherhood and increasing levels of interdependence during early adulthood can buffer men as they make the difficult transition to adulthood The innovative field based research featured in this volume illuminates the contexts processes and meanings in life pathways for disadvantaged men as they move from adolescence into adulthood and should help to inform policies and practices directed at minimizing their marginalization from mainstream society This is the 143rd volume in this series Its mission is to provide scientific and scholarly presentations on cutting edge issues and concepts in child and adolescent development Each volume focuses on a specific new direction or research topic and is edited by experts in that field The children of immigrants in schools (in five volumes) United States. Immigration Commission (1907-1910), 1911 The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles George Herbermann, Edward Aloysius Pace, Condé Bénédict Pallen, Thomas Joseph Shahan, John Joseph Wynne, 1914 Colonialism and Missionary Linguistics Klaus Zimmermann, Birte Kellermeier-Rehbein, 2015-03-10 A lot of what we know about exotic languages is owed to the linguistic activities of missionaries They had the languages put into writing described their grammar and lexicon and worked towards a standardization which often came with Eurocentric manipulation Colonial missionary work as intellectual religious conquest formed part of the Europeans political colonial rule although it sometimes went against the specific objectives of the official administration In most cases it did not help to stop or even reinforced the displacement and discrimination of those languages despite oftentimes providing their very first sometimes remarkable sometimes incorrect descriptions This volume presents exemplary studies on Catholic and Protestant missionary linguistics in the framework of the respective colonial situation and policies under Spanish German or British rule The contributions cover colonial contexts in Latin America Africa and Asia across the centuries They demonstrate how missionaries dealing with linguistic analyses and descriptions cooperated with colonial institutions and how their linguistic knowledge contributed to European domination

My Baby's Father Maureen R. Waller,2018-05-31 About one third of births in the United States occur to unmarried parents Evidence suggests that children who grow up in families headed by single parents have worse socioeconomic outcomes than those raised by married parents Fatherlessness has become a byword in public debate and policymaking yet fundamental questions about unmarried parents and their ideas of paternal responsibility remain unanswered In My Baby's Father Maureen R Waller draws on interviews with unmarried parents whose children receive welfare to address several basic vital questions How do low income mothers and fathers define the father's obligation to his children and explain irresponsible behavior among fathers How do they negotiate private arrangements of paternal acknowledgment and support And how do these informal practices interact with mandatory welfare and child support regulations The majority of research on low income families focuses on single mothers Waller's book also gives a voice to the fathers historically either excluded from academic and policy discussions or simply characterized as deadbeat dads with no sense of paternal responsibility By documenting the experiences of African American and white parents simultaneously Waller illustrates the extent to which beliefs and practices are likely to cut across racial lines She also shifts the focus from teenagers to adults who constitute the largest group of unmarried parents My Baby's Father provides honest glimpses into the lives of unmarried parents In addition it offers specific recommendations for social policies that are both better suited to unmarried parents socioeconomic situations and more responsive to the practices of responsible fatherhood in low income families

Cultural Studies Review Chris Healy and Stephen Muecke (eds),2009-03-01 This edition of Cultural Studies Review brings together a diverse set of essays and new writing that identify particular national tendencies notions of family epistemological worries about postmodernity's represented purpose and queries about cultural studies as it is taught and as it could be understood There is also some careful exploring of where and why we might be at home in our differences and what a felt homelessness might be To gather these varied strands beneath the heading Homefronts acknowledges as always the plurality of the environments that we call home and the battles of representation and being that make up the experiences of nation family philosophy and academic discipline that render those sites particular and so personal to us
