Somewhere To Sleep:

Restless in Sleep Country Paul Huebener, 2024-04-15 Sleep and the lack of it is a public obsession and an enormous everyday quandary Troubled sleep tends to be seen as an individual problem and personal responsibility to be fixed by better habits and tracking gadgets but the reality is more complicated Sleep is a site of politics culture and power In Restless in Sleep Country Paul Huebener pulls back the covers on cultural representations of sleep to show how they are entangled with issues of colonialism homelessness consumer culture technology and privacy the exploitation of labour and the effects of the Covid 19 pandemic Even though it almost entirely evades direct experience sleep is the subject of a variety of potent narratives each of which can serve to clarify and shape its role in our lives In Canada cultural visions of slumber circulate through such diverse forms as mattress commercials billboards comic books memoirs experimental poetry and bedtime story phone apps By guiding us through this imaginative landscape Huebener shows us how to develop a critical literacy of sleep Lying down and closing our eyes is an act that carries surprisingly high stakes going beyond individual sleep troubles Restless in Sleep Country illuminates the idea of sleep as a crucial site of inequity struggle and gratification

Syntax of Hungarian Gábor G. Alberti, Peter P. Siptar, 2025-10-01 Syntax of Hungarian aims to present a synthesis of the currently available syntactic knowledge of the Hungarian language rooted in theory but providing highly detailed descriptions and intended to be of use to researchers as well as advanced students of language and linguistics As research in language leads to extensive changes in our understanding and representations of grammar the Comprehensive Grammar Resources series intends to present the most current understanding of grammar and syntax as completely as possible in a way that will both speak to modern linguists and serve as a resource for the non specialist The current volume discusses the internal make up as well as the distribution of infinitival constructions Topics that are covered include complementation and modification The volume also provides a brief description of other non finite constructions in Hungarian such as different types of participle and converbs
